“IT’S GRILLIN’ TIME!”

Pat Dowd

Many grills were set up and ready to go when our May 18 “Steak Shoot” winners walked in the door. It was a night of multiple winners and extra cash too.

Starting the evening off were lucky winners Patty Browne, Judy Sullivan, Sue Obojski, and Vickie Rowell. They were soon followed by Betsy Grinches, Marilou Donovan, Sue Murphy, and Pam Curiale. Marilou won in five numbers or less and took home an extra $5 with her steaks.

Set 3 steaks were claimed by Coleen Fistek, Vickie Rowell, Kathy Dowd, and Barb Bopp. Barb also won quickly in five numbers or less and won the extra $5. The next set was won by four of our “regulars” – Kathy Foster, Linda Walsh, Bonnie Ayres, and Sue Murphy.

Intermission gave everyone a chance to have some refreshments and buy their tickets for the monthly cash drawing and the “Holiday Cash” drawing. Then it was back to the business of winning more steaks.

Set 5 gave Vickie Rowell, Mary Ann Boos, Judy Wade and Sue Cooper the chance to yell “STEAK!” And then as the regular games were coming to a close, Kathy Foster, Carolyn McFaul, Pam Curiale, Judy Sullivan, and Sue Cooper happily took home some delicious steaks.

Our Bonus round winners were Martha Beck who won four steaks, and Ed Bopp who was going to cook dinner for six! The Grand Bonus winner was Mary Ann Boos, and she was happy with three packages of large boneless, skinless chicken breasts.

The $60 cash prize winner for the month was Kate Walsh from California who was here visiting her sister-in-law, Jean Walsh.

The evening flew by. The winners eagerly picked up their steaks and the losers wanted to play more games!

We will play more games on Thursdays July 20 and August 17 at 7:30 p.m. All “Steak Shoot” sessions are held in the Phil Walsh Cabaret Room. Cost for the evening is $10 for one “rack” of 3 cards or $20 for 3 “racks” of cards. Each “rack” is good for 24 regular games and all bonus games. Come and join us – it’s loads of fun!

BOOKBUZZ

Bonnie Easton

Time for summer reading? Take a book to the beach or out to the patio to relax with a cold glass of your favorite beverage.

Let’s talk series. Lenin’s Roller Coaster by David Downing places spy Jack McColl in the middle of the 1917 Russian Revolution as he tries to find a way of using the events there to help the British defeat the Germans in World War I. He discovers his Irish-American girlfriend is also there as a journalist sympathetic to the Bolshevik cause. Will Jack and Caitlin’s relationship survive on opposite sides of the philosophical spectrum? The author brings the history of espionage to life in this third edition of his series.

Murder at an Irish Wedding: An Irish Village Mystery by Carlene O’Connor brings back the O’Sullivan siblings to cater a celebrity wedding of a fashion model in their town. The best man is absent, so Siobhan’s beau, garda Macdara Flannery, steps in. Both the best man and another member of the wedding party are discovered murdered, with Flannery as the prime suspect. Siobhan must clear his name and restore her town’s honor.

Cruel Winter: The County Cork Mysteries by Sheila Connelly is the fifth in her series. It finds American Maura Donovan trapped in the pub she owns in County Cork during a rare snowstorm. One of her customers also trapped is the suspected killer of a decades’ old unsolved murder. The locals decide to use the time to conduct their own mock trial and solve the crime. Will the police now review the case?

Happy Reading! For more suggestions, check padraicpearsecenter.weebly.com.

PADRAIC PEARSE BOOK DISCUSSION

Join us at 7:15 p.m. Friday evening, July 21, to discuss Leaving Lucy Pear: A Novel by Anna Solomon. In Boston in 1917, Beatrice Cohn leaves her newborn daughter under a pear tree in her Uncle Ira’s orchard. Emma, a poor Irish Catholic wife of a fisherman, finds the baby and names her Lucy Pear. She raises her in her family of nine. Ten years later, Emma’s and Bea’s lives intersect once more. Emma is the mistress of a local politician who wants Bea’s endorsement to help him capture the women’s vote while she works as a maid in Ira’s household. Bea and Emma play tug-of-war for Lucy’s affection.

We would love for you to join us for a lively discussion and refreshments.

August 18: Wonder by Emma Donoghue

Ross Eppich reported that a great time was had by all at the pinochle players' banquet. The food was great and the prizes welcome. Watch for sign ups in August. The pinochle group is always looking for new players to join the group.

We are pleased to share a note we received from Albert Beltz. He said, "I have recently been accepted by Bishop Daniel Thomas to continue my formation and studies for the Catholic priesthood as a seminarian for the Diocese of Toledo. As a first step, I have been given a pastoral assignment at St. Joseph Catholic Church in Maumee, OH, beginning August 1, 2017. I would like to offer a word of thanks to the membership for their encouragement and support over the years, and I ask for their continued prayers as I move forward to, God willing, serve the people of God as a priest."

Our deepest sympathies go out to Tom & Mary Kay Malone, Dan, Lindsay, Rory and Brigid on the passing of their Mom/Grandma and GG, Marge Hutchinson.

When we're wrong we admit it. Helen's last name is spelled Vura. Thanks Jack Murphy for the correction!

Thirsty Thursdays Back By Popular Demand

Padraic Pearse Ladies Reverse Raffle "Run for the Roses"

Bachna and Mahnich Capture Pinochle Championship

Andy Bachna and Eric Mahnich defeated Cathy Rice and Jackie Gillespie in the Pinochle League championship match on Thursday, May 18, 2017. The margin of victory was a scant four points (386-382) in the closely contested match which had Rice and Gillespie in the lead until the final hand.

The result was announced to the group at the Gala Banquet on Sunday, May 1. About 65 members and guests enjoyed lemon chicken and cabbage rolls, vegetables, desserts, and an open bar to conclude the 2017 season. Eleanor Sindelar coordinated the affair.

Bud and Rose Eppich, Mary Kosgolv, Mary Lou Donovan, Deb Lind, and Pat Pease agreed to assist in completing necessary tasks to manage the League for the 2017-2018 season.

Players requested a change in scoring rules for matches that are not played. In the event that a match is not played, the affected teams will be scored with the average score for all matches already completed by them.

Further, playoff partners need to be the same individuals who registered and played the regularly scheduled matches.

The Pinochle Tournament will be scheduled for a Sunday in early February so as not to conflict with the Hibernian Reverse Raffle on the Sunday prior to the Sunday of that NFL football game that the Cleveland Browns have never experienced. There is a hope to invite members of the West Side club to join in, if they have interest.

The Pinochle League is always seeking new players; if you are interested in playing next season, call Tom McNeill at 440-473-6860 or send an email to iacespinochle@gmail.com. Pat Pease has declared free agency and is seeking a partner as well.
