STEAK SHOOT – WHAT A GREAT OPENING NIGHT!

Pat Dowd

Our 10th series of Steak Shoot games got off to a terrific start in April with everyone in a great mood, anxious to play, and even more anxious to win!

Judy Wade was our friendly and efficient caller for the night, and Chris Faith wasted no time in winning the first steaks with only three numbers called! That was a first, and Chris took home an extra $5 along with his steaks. Martha Dodd, Thomasine Barner and Martha Beck were happy winners to complete the first set.

Set 2 gave us six winners: Louise Ruffner, Sharon Kane, Maggie Spellman, Kevin McCluskey, Mary Jo Gurry and Mary Jo Gurry again.

The next set gave us several multiple winners with Maggie Spellman, Joe McManus, Louise Ruffner and Barb Bopp claiming their winnings. Then it was on to Theresa Male, Jean Walsh, Thomasine Barner and Pam Splittorf anxious to get out their grills.

Quickly, it was time for intermission, some refreshments, and chances for the monthly and “Holiday Cash” raffles. It was also time to catch up with old friends and new since the last series of Steak Shoot games. You could tell people were glad to be back enjoying the camaraderie and relaxed atmosphere of the games.

In Set 5, Maggie Spellman decided she hadn't won enough steaks yet, so she added two more to her winnings. Amy Bopp, Barb Bopp and Mae Keenan were happy to join the winner's circle, and Mae Keenan won an extra $5 by winning in five numbers or less.

In the final set of the regular series, Cal Ryan, Linda Walsh, Sharon Kane, and Peggy Bennett claimed their steaks and we began the Bonus rounds.

Winning two packages of steaks each (4 steaks) were Michael Keenan and Sharon Kane. The Grand Bonus was a 10lb. Sugardale spiral sliced ham won by Evie Adams, and Evie also won in three numbers and took home an extra $5!

Our monthly cash drawing was won by Jeff and Judy Wade who took home $77!

All in all, it was a fun night with loads of multiple winners, two winners in three numbers – a first - and a great monthly cash drawing. We hope you'll join us Thursday, June 21 at 7:30 for our next game sponsored by the Padraic Pearse Center, so that you, too, can be a winner! Come and bring a friend or two, and you can all be winners.

PADRAIC PEARSE BOOK DISCUSSION

The Padraic Pearse Center Book Club will meet at 7:15 pm, Friday, June 15, in the Board Room to discuss The Ninth Hour: A Novel by Alice McDermott. When an Irish Catholic immigrant commits suicide in Brooklyn, he leaves behind his pregnant widow. The Little Sisters of the Sick Poor take her in and give her a job in the laundry. Crusty Sister Illuminata and bubbly Sister Jeannie sacrifice much to give comfort and help to the young mother and little daughter Sally.

All are welcome to join us or a lively discussion and refreshments!

Schedule of future meetings:

July 20: The Library at the Edge of the World: A Novel by Felicity Hayes-McCoy

August 17: Time Pieces: A Dublin Memoir by John Banville

September 21: Jackie's Girl: My Life with the Kennedy Family by Kathy McKeon

November 16: Carnegie's Maid by Marie Benedict

For updates on the book club and more reading suggestions, check out padraicpearsecenter.weebly.com.

BOOKBUZZ

Bonnie Easton

Time to talk about some good summer reads. Here are a few suggestions to kick off the season.

Liz Nugent (Unraveling Oliver, 2017) offers a psychological thriller, Lying in Wait: A Novel, which explores a sociopathic mind. A judge and his wife befriend Annie, a 22-year-old prostitute who threatens to blackmail them. The wife directs her husband to kill her and bury her body in the garden. Their teenage son befriends Annie's family and secrets begin to unravel

Time Pieces: A Dublin Memoir by Man Booker Prize winner John Banville is the cultural history of a city. The author uses photographs paired with commentary, memories, and humor to tell the story of the city he loves.

Do you like gothic novels about dark castles? Pick up Darkling Bride: A Novel by Laura Anderson. She spins a tale about Deeprath Castle, owned for 700 years by the Gallagher family. Aidan Gallagher, the current Viscount, lost his parents when he was young to a violent death. It was ruled a murder-suicide, but was it? Another unsolved murder in the family was that of Lady Jenny Gallagher in the 1880s. The Viscount is donating the house to the Irish National Trust, so a young scholar arrives to take inventory of items in the library. She finds clues to help Aidan solve the crimes and a little romance with the handsome Viscount blossoms.

Hooray For The Red, White & Blue & The Ladies, Too! Pat Dowd

The afternoon of April 29, the main hall of the Club was turned into a patriotic ballroom as our ladies only event, "A Star- Spangled Afternoon" got under way. In addition to all of the red, white and blue décor, there were posters and stars and table decorations to remind us of the patriotism exhibited by so many men and women serving our country in the 1940s. We even had a very special photo op backdrop constructed by Ed Bopp and his daughter, Amy. It provided the perfect setting for the ladies to get their group or individual pictures taken. Thanks so much, Ed and Amy. And once again, Russ Splittorf was our very accommodating and gracious photographer.

And true to form, our guests showed off their finest red, white, and blue outfits as they came through the door and Judy Wade directed them to their table. The women always love to dress for the occasion for these ladies only events, and we love it, too!

In addition to the open bar, our special drinks of the day included the ever-popular "Mimosa", but the biggest hit was the "Bloody Mary" bar where the ladies could add their own embellishments – olives, celery, lemon, lime, etc. Of course, the "red juice" fit right in with our theme. Our special bartenders for the day were Michael Keenan, Chris Faith, and Kevin McCluskey. Thank you, guys!

As always, our silent auction items drew a huge response as the women dropped their tickets into their favorite bags, hoping their ticket will be drawn for the various specially themed items. Kathy Dowd and Cindy Dowd made sure everyone got their tickets.

Also vying for attention are the sideboard tickets which were bought up in no time by the ladies. I can't help but remember when we set up for the first Ladies Only Luncheon and one of the committee members said, "Don't set up too many – women don't buy sideboard tickets." That day we sold NINE sideboards with no problem! That was 1800 tickets!!!

We also had a special raffle this year called "The Victory Garden". This was reminiscent of the home gardens people were encouraged to plant during the war, so that the produce from the farmers could be shipped overseas, and the produce from the home gardens could be used to feed those at home. In the garden were "planted" various seed packets of vegetables which the ladies bought chances on. If their ticket was pulled, they got to select which seed packet they wanted. The seed packets contained between $10 and $100. Seven tickets would be pulled. Bree Gurry, Alana Gurry and sister, Maggie Spellman, sold these tickets.

Soon it was time for the luncheon to be served, and Koumbaros Catering did a terrific job of preparing a delicious meal of baked ham, chicken, redskin potatoes, vegetable medley, and a special requested salad of cucumbers, tomatoes, onions and vinegar. (We even had the patriotic red and white in our salads.) The meal was topped off by Kevin McCluskey's red velvet cake. Thank you Joe, Rick, and Kevin.

Then it was time for more fun as we began the raffles. Linda Walsh was our friendly, upbeat caller of the day. Pat Homan and her daughter, Erin, assisted with the drum and number capsules, and Kelsey Meaney and Linnea Domenick were our lovely "Vannas" turning over the mainboard numbers on stage.

Eight women each drew 25 numbers from the barrel, and probably lost a friend or two in the process: Sue McGill, Mary Ellen Finucan, Margaret Walsh, birthday girl Maura Garin, Jane Murphy, Connie Morgan, Janine Nemencheck, and Judy Sullivan. Verifying every number called were Mary Jo Gurry, Mary McCluskey, and Norine Hastings.

As the numbers were called, Judy Wade distributed gifts of Italian crystal wine glass sets to the women who were the 1st, 25th, 50th, 75th, 100th, 125th, 150th, 175th and 195th numbers pulled: Eileen Foreman, Mary Jo Baden, Jan Brunett, Liz Sterk, Ann Sutton, Kara Backo, Bev Sutkowski and Kelsey Hastings.

After the 195th number was drawn, there was much excitement as all holders of the remaining tickets, both main board and side boards came to the dance floor to negotiate their winnings. In the spirit of the day, all winners decided to split their winnings evenly! The five main board winners were Jen Kerper (158), Donna Baioni (49), Shirley Rund (51), Donna Wilson (100) and Judy Harmon (128). Our treasurer, Peggy Bennett, who was also celebrating her birthday, made sure everyone received their prize money.

Then it was on to the Silent Auction items where everyone had tickets for one or more selections. Linnea Meaney, who had set up the entire Silent Auction area for us, began pulling the winning tickets. And the winners were:

Let's Go – I'm Ready!	Thomasine Barner
Let's Make Some Sandwiches,	Diana May
Smoothies, Popcorn & Lemonade
Kitchen Delights	Janine Nemecheck
Guess Who's Coming to Dinner?	Elaine Jastredowski
Coming & Going in Style	Kathy Dowd
Red, White & Blue	Bridget Simenc
A Special Touch for Bed & Bath	Karrie Campbell
All That Glitters	Megan Rosalia
Some of My Favorite Things	Karrie Campbell
Let's Have a Party	Katie Baden
Let's Relax Outdoors	Katie Patek

Each winner had her picture taken by Russ and had help packing up her beautiful winnings.

Our "Victory Garden" main winner was Vickie Watson who won the $100, and the other six winners had $10 each in their seed packets!

This was the Padraic Pearse Center’s 10th year of hosting the Ladies Only Luncheon & Raffle. Each year people have told us, “This was the best ever!” This year was no exception, and we’re already looking forward to next year’s “Ladies Only” event.

It takes a lot of work to put on this event, but we have a “small but mighty” group of people who love planning and working together to make these events special for you. I am so grateful to them for the success and fun these events generate: Thomasine Barner, Peggy Bennett, Amy Bopp, Martha Chrosniak, Bonnie Easton, Eileen Garin, Bree Gurry, Kevin McCluskey, Dianne Probst, Maggie Gurry Spellman, and Pam Splittorf.

Thank you to all who have supported us over the years – we hope you’ll continue to do so, and if you have any ideas or comments about our events, please let us know.

Lunch With Cahal Dunne

Don’t forget to make your reservations by June 10. The luncheon is Friday, June 15, 2018. I’m looking forward to a full house to enjoy the tasty luncheon that’s planned as well as the great entertainment provided by Cahal Dunne. Doors will open 11:30 am with a lunch buffet at noon. Lunch
