How Many Steaks Did She Win?!!!

Pat Dowd

Our June “Steak Shoot” had heads shaking in disbelief as the evening went on. With a lighter crowd than usual, we thought maybe everyone would go home a winner, but so much for wishful thinking.

Starting us off was our “drill master”, Mary McCluskey, who very quickly won game one of the first set. She was soon followed by Sherry Armand. But, Mary McCluskey knew she needed more steaks, so game 3 was hers too. Marilyn Paulin happily won game 4 of the first set.

Set 2 really got everyone buzzing as Kathy Foster and Mary McCluskey (again) won the first game, and Ann Turk won the next three games in a row -a first!

Set 3 went quickly as Judy Sullivan, Ed Bopp, Sue Murphy and Merrie Pyle each won holiday steaks. On to set 4 where Stephen Pyle, Joyce Tucceri, Darlene Szafranski, and Amy Bopp were planning their next cookout.

Then it was time out for refreshments and the chance to purchase the monthly cash drawing tickets and a chance to win the “Holiday Cash” in November.

Then it was back to the games where Judy Sullivan, Darlene Szafranski, Cal Ryan and Judy Sullivan (again) were eager to claim their steaks.

The final games of the regular sets were won by Pam Splittorf, Ann Turk (now she was at eight!), Amy Bopp, and Sharon Kane.

Our Bonus Game winners were Marilyn Paulin who won four more steaks, and Ann Turk who won six more steaks, for a grand total of 14 steaks for the evening!!!!

The Grand Bonus of a beautiful London Broil was won by Ed Bopp.

We hope you’ll join us July 19 and August 16 at 7:30 pm as the Padraic Pearse Center continues to have fun and give away steaks. Thanks for coming and for your continued support.

Bookbuzz Bonnie Easton

For mystery readers:

The Liar’s Girl by Catherine Ryan Howard tells the story of a serial killer who killed five young women by drowning them in the Grand Canal. Will Hurley confesses and is sent to a psychiatric hospital. His girlfriend Alison flees to Amsterdam. Ten years later, another victim is found and Will agrees to help the police in the investigation but will only talk to Alison. She reluctantly returns to Dublin.

Too Close to Breathe: A Novel is the debut novel of Olivia Kiernan. In this tale, Detective Chief Superintendent Frankie Sheehan returns from medical leave after being shot and still suffering from PTSD. Her first case is a murder disguised as a suicide. She is confronted by the victim’s secrets in life and in death.

The setting is the Appalachian Mountains of Big Gap, Tennessee where a community of Irish Travelers have settled. Brynn Callahan is a former Marine MP who returns home after an IED explosion. She brings home her cadaver dog, Wilco. Brynn and Wilco discover in their walk in the woods the body of a woman she knows and must help the local police solve the crime. She enlists the help of the reluctant Irish Travelers. Splintered Silence by Susan Furlong is the first in the Bone Gap Travelers series.

In a Galway mansion, an addicted single mother from an Anglo-Irish family is found dead with her two young children, Maude and Jack, fending for themselves. Cormac Reilly is a new policeman sent to investigate. Twenty years later, Reilly is again involved with the family when Jack dies from an apparent suicide, but Maude and Jack’s girlfriend Aisling are sure he was murdered. The Ruin by Dervla McTiernan provides an edgy debut novel.

Happy Reading!

Padraic Pearse Book Discussion

The Padraic Pearse Book Club will be meeting on Friday, August 17th at 7:15 p.m. in the Board Room to discuss Time Pieces: A Dublin Memoir by John Banville. The author is a Man Booker Prize winner who writes fiction under his own name and also the Quirke Mystery series under the pen name Benjamin Black. In this memoir, he relates his own story of visiting Dublin as a child on his birthday and moving there as an adult. This story of his life and his beloved city and its culture is told with insight and humor. He includes some excellent photographs by Paul Joyce and his commentary on Dublin’s history and architecture.

All are welcome to join us for a lively discussion and refreshments!

Schedule of future meetings:

August 17: Time Pieces: A Dublin Memoir by John Banville

September 21: Jackie’s Girl: My Life with the Kennedy Family by Kathy McKeon

November 16: Carnegie’s Maid by Marie Benedict

For updates on the book club and more reading suggestions, check out padraicpearsecenter.weebly.com.

HE SAID...SHE SAID...

By Barbara Comiskey and the Membership

Merrie Pyle is very proud of her three grandsons, Tobin, Nolan and Evan Pyle, all graduates of Eastlake North High School, who were all chosen as Valedictorians upon graduation.

Happy Anniversary to David and Donna Baioni who will be celebrating 45 years of marriage on August 18. Our best wishes also go out to Bonnie and Mickey McNally as they celebrate their 53rd Anniversary.

Some of our members are having lots of fun this summer. Jean Walsh and Rita McNeely are taking a trip to Noah's Ark in Kentucky in August. The two adventurers will also be white water rafting (or white water watching) at Ohiopyle sometime in July. Helen Vura and Jack Murphy had a great time in Put-In-Bay.

Our best birthday wishes go out to Jon Gurry, "65" on August 5 and Brigid Gurry on August 25. Susan Cooper will be celebrating her birthday on August 15. The Burke family is posting their family's birthday announcements early, including Jim Burke on September 1, Casey McCullough on September 15, Mike Burke on September 16 and Maureen Burke on September 30. You never know when they will be away on another family trip.

We offer sincere sympathy to Judy Wade on the loss of her husband, Jeff. Our deepest condolence to the family of Catherine Lauffer, one of our last Golden Shamrocks. Memorial services were held recently for Madeline Finnerty, age 99, wife of the late Andy, both of whom were long-time Club members. Condolences to Corky DiVincenzo on the passing of her husband, Guido, two of our club trip travelers.

To have your important events included in this column, please jot them down on the flyers found on the tables at the membership meetings or email me at barbcomiskey@gmail.com.

"Looking For Some Aspiring Young Stars"

We are excited to announce we will be having a Christmas play starring the children of the Irish American Club East Side. Under the direction of Christopher Cooper, the performance will be on December 9, 2018. Practice will be 6:15-7:15 pm on Wednesday nights. Watch for more information on who to contact and when practices will begin.

Volunteer Needed

The Pinochle League is in need of a Chairperson. If no one volunteers, the club will be without a Pinochle League in September. If you are interested, please contact Marilou Donovan at 216-409-0818 or mlcd@att.net for details.

Thank You

Everyone who attended the "Luncheon with Cahal Dunne" on Friday, June 15, left expressing what a great time they had at the show and how wonderful the food was. Cahal sang songs, told stories, played a beautiful rendition of the theme from "Exodus" on piano. The highlight was probably the "Story of the Pheasant Plucker" – Gerry Quinn shared it on Facebook so give it a view and be amazed.

The numerous people I wish to thank are: Rick Eberhard and his Koumbaro's crew for not only the terrific meal but also for the hall set-up and clean-up afterward; Mary Jo Gurry and Sue McGill for handling the ticket sales and seating arrangements; Barb Comiskey for all of her assistance with promotion; Jim Burke for taking care of the bar duties; Gerry Quinn, Roger Weist, and all the Irish Radio programs for announcing our event on air; and, of course, the Executive Board and Membership for approving the show. A very special thanks to the ladies and gentlemen who spent their Friday afternoon in good company with fine entertainment.

Irish Heritage Tour

Pat Dowd

The Padraic Pearse Center is thrilled to announce that we have planned a most interesting and informative Irish Heritage Tour for Saturday, October 13. The tour is designed to give an overview of the early patterns of settlement of the Irish in Cleveland, particularly on the eastside.

Lolly the Trolley will pick us up at the Club at 10 am and return us to the Club by 4 pm. Our narrated tour will include stops at St. Aloysius Church with pastor Fr. Mark Hobson, a stroll in the beautiful Irish Cultural Garden, and a visit to Immaculate Conception Church in Cleveland – affectionately known as “The Mac”, where Fr. Frank Godic is pastor.

Midway through our tour, we’ll stop for lunch at one of the oldest Irish establishments in Cleveland – the Flat Iron.

After lunch, we’ll make our way across the street to the Irish Famine Memorial on the banks of the Cuyahoga River.

As Lolly winds her way back to the Club, we’ll hear more about various points of interests such as St. Malachi’s, The Flats, Irish Town Bend, St. Mary’s on the Flats, the Soldiers & Sailors Monument and more.

All of our previously sponsored Irish Heritage Tours have promptly sold out! We anticipate the same will be true this time, so don’t wait to make your reservation. We are limited to 38 passengers per trolley, and we have two trollies reserved, so reservations will be on a first-come, first served basis.

Plan now to join us on this enjoyable day as we travel to sites that hold so much history and so many memories for so many of us. Bring along a relative or friend as we journey down memory lane – and leave the driving to Lolly!

Cost for the tour is $45.00 which includes roundtrip trolley transportation from and back to the Club, driver gratuity, donations to St. Aloysius and Immaculate Conception churches, lunch at the Flat Iron, tax and luncheon gratuity.

RESERVATIONS: Send your check made payable to:

Padraic Pearse Center
Attn: Irish Heritage Tour
22770 Lake Shore Blvd.
Euclid, OH 44123

NOTE: If you are reserving for more than one person, be sure to include everyone’s name.

To the Membership

Kevin McCluskey

To the membership of the Club. Where did the last three years go? Time does fly when you’re having fun. I would like to take this opportunity and thank everyone for what we have accomplished over the last two years.

I would first like to thank the Executive Board members for all the hard work you’ve done to move our club forward. Next, I would like to thank all the committee chairs and volunteers. Without you, our club would be lost. Your dedication is very much appreciated. I cannot name everyone, but thank you so much.

We have many fun activities planned to help our club thrive. Membership is growing and the younger generation is getting involved.

A good friend of the family, Jack Carroll, came to me after I was elected, congratulated me, and said “I have three things for you. 1. Don’t screw up. 2. I know you will do a great job. 3. Your father would be very proud of you.” That really meant a lot to me and I hope I didn’t let you down.

In conclusion, please support the new Executive Board that we elected. While we may not have always agreed, I hope you enjoyed some activities during my tenure and continue to support the IACES! I’m not going anywhere, I just need a little break.

Once again, thank you everyone.

In Memoriam

A Smile That Keeps On Giving

Thank you to Claire Trueman and her family for remembering the Irish American Club Eastside. We received donations from many of Claire’s family and friends in her memory.

They all knew she had a great time here at the club enjoying the events, meetings and all the amazing friendships she had developed.

Thanks for all the great memories and wonderful smiles you gave us Claire.

Until we meet again.
