A WINNING NIGHT!

Pat Dowd

Our last night of “Steak Shoot” for season 10 was fun from beginning to end as everyone was anxious to be a winner, not only of the delicious steaks, but also of the cash “stakes” in our “Holiday Cash” drawings.

Wasting no time in starting the evening off were Bonnie Ayers, Mary Jo Gurry, Amy Bopp and Marilyn Paulin. Right behind them were winners Norma Davis, Judy Wade, Bob Fitzgerald and Kathy Dowd. Kathy also won an extra $5 for winning in 5 numbers or less.

Set 3 was claimed by Mary McCluskey, Dennis Flynn, Sean Fitzgerald and Mary Alice Curran. In Set 4 it was Vic Szokan, Betsy Grinches, Ann Turk, and Pam Splittorf who happily yelled “Steak!”

Intermission brought a flurry of activity as everyone got their refreshments, but more importantly more tickets for tonight’s drawings.

Then it was back to business as Michael Keenan, Dave “Bear” Baioni, Steve Pyle, and Mary McCluskey joined the steak winners. The final regular set of games was won by Betsy Grinches, Gerry Oman, Steve Pyle and Sue Obojski.

We had six bonus games and the first two winners, Mary Jo Gurry and Judy Wade, each won three packages – six steaks! Since Thanksgiving was a short time away, our next drawings were for boneless turkey breasts won by Chris Faith and Carol Peppard. The next two winners of 15 lb.+ whole turkeys were Bonnie Ayers and Chris Faith.

And now to the cash prizes for the night! Vickie Rowell was the winner of the November drawing for $85. Winning $100 each in the “Holiday Cash” drawing were Norma Davis, Rita McNeely and Pam Splittorf. Our last winner of the evening was Sharon Kane who took home $200!

The Padraic Pearse Center thanks all who have supported this fun game and all of our programs. Thank you to our callers, Mary McCluskey and Judy Wade, who made many people happy calling their winning cards – and a few not so happy by not calling their cards. Thanks to Kathy Dowd for cheerfully taking your money as you came through the door, and to Chris Faith and Kevin McCluskey for dispensing the winning steaks.

While “Steak Shoot” is not a huge money maker, we know how much people enjoy the fun, relaxation, and camaraderie that it provides – in addition to the delicious steaks from Sweetberry Fresh Market!

We wish everyone a Happy and Healthy New Year and hope to see you for Season 11 in April!

Bookbuzz Bonnie Easton

The selections for this month stem from three different fiction genres.

From a Low and Quiet Sea by Irish author Donal Ryan describes three men facing totally different situations: a Syrian physician must escape with his family or risk death, an Irishman is living with his mother after his girlfriend dumped him, and an elderly accountant confesses to a shady past before he dies. It all comes together in the end.

The Eulogist: A Novel by Terry Gamble is historical fiction that takes place in pre-Civil War Cincinnati and Kentucky. The Givens siblings arrive in America from Ireland with the oldest brother owning slaves in a candle-making business, the second brother becoming a Methodist preacher, and the free-spirited sister marrying a doctor. Eugene sends a slave named Tilly to Ohio as a dowry for his sister’s wedding. Olivia and her husband become abolitionists and are helping smuggle slaves to freedom. When Eugene finds out, he wants Tilly back, but Ohio is a free state, thus leading to a trial.

Don’t Skip Out on Me: A Novel by Willy Vlautin is a western. Mr. Reese and his wife raise their young ward, Horace Hopper, to take over their family farm in Nevada. Reese has a bad back and other ailments that make farm work difficult. Horace is half-Paiute and half-Irish. He has dreams of becoming a Mexican boxer and finding fame and fortune. In the end, he suffers a series of injuries that threaten his future.

PADRAIC PEARSE BOOK DISCUSSION

Join us at 7:15 p.m. Friday, January 18 in the Board Room for our monthly book discussion. We will discuss the mystery, Splintered Silence by Susan Furlong. Brynn Callahan, a former Marine MP, comes home to the Appalachian Mountains of Bone Gap, Tennessee with a case of PTSD and her canine partner, Wilco. She joins her grandmother’s people, Irish Travellers who live in their own secluded community. Wilco discovers a body of a woman in the woods. Brynn was acquainted with the woman and partners with the local sheriff to dig into her past and puts herself back in the line of fire. She is not trusted by the Travellers or by the police. First in a planned series.

Schedule of upcoming discussions in 2019:

February 15: Girl in the Castle by Santa Montefiore

March: No Meeting

April 19: What She Knew by Gilly Macmillan

May 17: Eleanor Oliphant Is Completely Fine by Gail Honeyman

June 21: The Ruin by Dervla MacTiernan

For updates on the book discussion group and more reading suggestions, check out padraicpearsecenter.weebly.com.

CLUB UNITS

Linda Walsh

Each year on Family Day I see so many young families with children and wonder why some of these children do not participate in our Club units. Club units perform at many of our functions during the month of March and march in the St. Patrick's Day Parade. I am writing to encourage members to participate in our marching units. We have the Pom Pom Unit, the Jack McDonough Fife and Drum Corp and we are currently working on revamping our Flag Corp. These units practice on Sundays from 11 am – 1 pm, beginning the first Sunday in January which this year will be January 5, 2019. We know that young families are very busy and wanted to let the parents know that they are free to drop off their children at 11 am and pick them up at 1 pm We have plenty of adult supervision and would love to have your children join us.

We also have our Ladies Drill team who practice on Thursday evenings beginning in January. The Pipe Band also practices on Thursday evenings and also gives lessons to any interested members at no charge. Please feel free to contact me with any questions you may have at 216-538-1358. If you are interested in finding out more information on the units please fill out the form below and mail it to:
