STEAK SHOOT DOUBLES GALORE!

Pat Dowd

Our August Steak Shoot was a most unusual one in that we had seven double winner games, and even one triple winner game which was a first!

The first set of four games was the only one that did not have multiple winners that night, but those happy winners were Judy Sullivan, Judy Wade, Mike Keenan and Sue Obojski. Judy Sullivan also won an extra $5 for winning in five cards or less.

Set 2 winners were Peggy Bennett, Denise Szabo, Judy Sullivan, Sue Obojski, and Betsy Grinches. Not to be outdone were Set 3 winners Vickie Rowell, Ed Bopp, Carolyn McFaul, Jean Walsh, Betsy Grinches and Linda Walsh.

Then came Set 4 winners Peggy Bennett, Sue Obojski, Judy Wade and Bonnie Ayers. Game 4 of Set 4 gave us our first triple winners - Sharon Wade, Ed Bopp and Barb Bopp! With that it was time for intermission, refreshments and cash drawing tickets.

All of our regular Steak Shoot players seem to really enjoy playing the games in the upper hall and participating in the Thirsty Thursday fun, food and beverages.

Soon it was back to the games, and starting us off in Set 5 were winners Pam Splittorf, Mary McCluskey, Bonnie Ayers, Mary Alice Curran, Marilyn Paulin and first-time "virgin" winner Steve Waite.

Set 6 was a good one for Linda Walsh, Ed Bopp, Judy Wade, Cal Ryan and Bob Fitzgerald (Mr. Fitz). For the first time ever, we ran out of steaks. But everyone went home with their winning steaks except Judy Wade, who graciously agreed to wait until the next day for hers. Thanks, Judy.

Our bonus game winners were Kathy Dowd who won 4 lbs. of fresh pork ribs and Mary Alice Curran who took home a 2 lb. London Broil – for Tom to cook.

Topping off the evening with the winning cash drawing ticket was none other than our faithful player – Mr. Fitz, who took home an extra $50!

Thanks to all who come to this fun night sponsored by the Padraic Pearse Center. We hope to see you at 7:30 pm Thursday, October 17 and for the finale on November 21 – mark your calendars now!!

Bookbuzz Bonnie Easton

Here is a variety of selections for your review this month. The first two are fictional biographies that present the story through letters, proving that letter writing is a lost art.

Author Eileen B. Alden discovered 19 letters written by her great, great grandfather. Yours Faithfully, Florence Burke: An Irish Immigrant Story is the tale based on a family who fled the Irish famine to find themselves living in near-poverty in Massachusetts. In 1864, Florence Burke joined the Union Army with the promise of land and prosperity at the end of the war. He wrote letters home to his wife and family to share his experiences in the war and his hopes that he could offer her and his children a better life.

Becoming Mrs. Lewis: A Novel: The Improbable Love Story of Joy Davidman and C. S. Lewis by Patti Callahan is a fictionalized biography based on the love story of Irish-born writer and theologian C. S. Lewis (The Chronicles of Narnia) and poet and writer Joy Davidman. When Davidman's marriage was crumbling, she solicited spiritual guidance from Lewis through an exchange of letters. Their friendship turned to love in a happy, but short-lived, marriage.

Are there zombie-like creatures in Ireland? Yes, according to author Susan Davis-Goff in her first novel, Last Ones Left Alive. Orpen and Maeve live on a small, isolated island off the coast of Ireland. The skrakes, ravenous monsters whose bites transfer an infection to their victims, lurk on the mainland and pose a dangerous threat to humans. Orpen feels compelled to leave her island to find the companionship of other people and pushes Maeve in a wheelbarrow across the country to Phoenix City, a place that promises safety for them.

Night Boat to Tangier by Kevin Barry is the story of two former Irish drug runners, Maurice Heame and Charlie Redmond, who are sitting in a Spanish ferry terminal waiting for Dilly, Maurice's estranged daughter. It's a dark narrative as they reminisce about their exploits with flashbacks to some of their most memorable moments together.

Black 47: Ireland's Great Hunger is a graphic novel by Damien Goodfellow. When Jack and his family are evicted from their home in 1847 and given one-way tickets to America, they decide to remain in Ireland instead. The tragedy of the famine is told in graphic format through the eyes of one family.

For genealogy buffs, here are two new entries for you to check out. Finding Your Irish Ancestors Online by Miriam O'Reilly is a pamphlet for beginners. It walks you through what information you need to collect to start your family tree and the various Irish sources available online to aid in the search. A new edition of a standard Irish genealogy source is now available, Tracing Your Irish Ancestors (5th edition) by John Grenham. It is a comprehensive list of such resources as the registry office records, census records, county records, and much more as well as a guide to new developments in online resources and DNA testing.

Happy Reading! More reading suggestions at padraic-pearsecenter.weebly.com.

Padraic Pearse Book Discussion

On Friday evening, September 27, at 7:15 pm, we will finish our discussion of the Deverill Chronicles series with The Secret of the Irish Castle. This sequel in the family saga takes place in 1939. A daughter comes from America to find her birth mother. A former housemaid of Castle Deverill is now its mistress, but her husband seems to be straying from his marriage vows. Kitty is reconciled to her marriage to Robert and her family, but her lost love, Jack O'Leary, returns. Will all three of these women find happiness in the end?

2019-2020 Schedule of upcoming discussions:
 October 18: What the Wind Knows by Amy Harmon
 November 15: When All Is Said by Anne Griffin
 January 17: Witch Elm by Tana French

Gangs, Gangsters And Gamblers Among The Irish In Cleveland

Pat Dowd

7 pm Wednesday, October 23. You won't want to miss this journey through time in the Cleveland area as Margaret Lynch, executive director of the Irish American Archives Society, brings her most interesting talk and slide presentation to the East Side Irish American Club.

Sponsored by the Padraic Pearse Center, Margaret chronicles legendary – or notorious – Irish American characters who strayed “on the other side” of the law in Cleveland in the early-to-mid 20th century. She will bring to life names that most of us will recognize, but probably know very little about – Shimmy Patton, Blackjack McGinty, the McCart Gang and Danny Greene. Her slide presentation will include a documentary tracing Irish immigrants to the Flats, then a westward migration which included the Angle, and St. Malachi.

Danny
Greene

Prohibition paved the way for a host of vices – illegal gambling, speakeasies, numbers games, racketeering, loan sharking, and more.

The East Side illegal activities were infamously housed at the Mounds Club in Willoughby, whose proprietor had definite connections to County Mayo, and in particular, Achill Island.

This will be a very special night here at the Club – one that will give you much to talk about with family, friends, and neighbors. Bring them along – this will be a presentation like none other we've had!

Ms. Lynch's presentation is scheduled for 7 pm in the Phil Walsh Cabaret Room. Suggested donation of $5 at the door.

Margaret Lynch has been executive director of the IAAS since 2008, and was a founding member of its board in 1994. She authored The Day We Celebrate: 175 Years of Cleveland's St. Patrick's Day Parade, published in collaboration with the United Irish Societies of Greater Cleveland in 2017.
