

Congratulations to our 2024 Members of the Year

MARY C. McCLUSKEY

The Executive Board is happy to have chosen Mary C. McCluskey as our 2024 Member of the Year. Mary was born December 16 to Nora and Thomas Hastings from County Mayo, Ireland. She has loved and studied Irish music and customs since early childhood, dancing with the Gaelic League Society Dancers along with her sister Norine and brothers Thomas and Frank.

Mary attended St. Philomena Grade School and Ursuline Sacred Heart Academy in East Cleveland. When she was a high school freshman Mary joined the West Side Irish American Club's Ladies Drill Team. By 1962 she became the leader of the Drill Team and continued for over 50 years, known as "Sergeant Major" before handing over the reins to her daughter Katie. She was very instrumental in assisting her sister Norine and Heather O'Brien with the Irish American Club East Side Ladies Drill Team.

In 1962 Mary met her husband Joe at the West Side Irish American Club and they were married February 3, 1962. Mary & Joe had seven children, Mary, Christine, Kevin, Tom, Tricia, Maureen, and Katie. She is so proud of her grandchildren, Andrew and Patrick Pillion, Sean, Meghan, and Cara O'Donnell. She has passed along her love of her Irish heritage to her family and enjoys traveling to the Irish Dance Feis's to watch her granddaughters Meghan and Cara compete.

For the past few years Mary has been handling the Club's hall rentals and our Tuesday Ladies Cleaning Crew. You will never see her at a Club function where she isn't walking around doing something. We thank her for all that she has done and continues to do for our Club.

ROBERT (FITZ) T. FITZGERALD

Robert Thomas Fitzgerald (Bob) is better known as "Fitz" to all who know him. He is the eldest of six children born to Robert and Corrine (Quinlan). His siblings include Jeanne, Mary Alice, Kathleen, Sharon, and Sean. He attended St. Paul School in Euclid and then attended St. Joseph High School. Bob earned the rank of Eagle Scout, which may surprise some, but not those who know him well.

After high school Bob attended The Ohio State University. His attire lets people know he is a proud Buckeye alum. Take for example his signature OSU polo. In Fitz's opinion, it is very versatile. He believes it can be worn casually with a pair of shorts or add a velour smoking jacket and it is suitable dinner attire at Ashford Castle in Ireland. This of course was much to his traveling companion's dismay.

He married Shelly Gardner on September 14, 1996, and on March 10, 1999, Daddy's little girl, Gabrielle, was born. The family resides in Euclid.

If Bob is not helping here at the Irish American Club, or at a friend or family's home, he is most likely at his personal slice of heaven, their cottage in Andover.

For many years, volleyball was Bob's passion. He played in several men's leagues for both the city of Euclid and Turners. He coached both CYO and JO and helped found the Utopia Beach Club Junior Olympics Club.

Bob retired in 2017 from the State of Ohio where he was a tax auditor for over 30 years. After retirement, he spent most days caring for his father with the help of his siblings. These days, meeting up with friends and family for morning coffee or a few beers at night is some of his favorite time spent. He even claims he plays a weekly round of golf.

Fitz is a long-time member of the Irish American Club East Side. He has co-chaired the 317 Raffle since its inception, he has volunteered as a bartender, and shows up on Tuesday for club clean up and chaired the OSU vs. Michigan party. "Banger Boards", which have been used at many events to help raise money for the club over the years, was his brilliant contribution.

He is also a member of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, Bluestone Division where he serves as an officer and their delegate to the United Irish Society.

Whether it is something that is needed to be done here at the club, or if there is a friend or family that needs a helping hand, Bob can always be counted on to be there for you. Ask those that know and love him; they will tell you he is the best big brother, cousin, father, friend, husband, and sport anyone could ask for. The fact that Fitz has never met a stranger tells you what a generous and welcoming soul he is. The Irish American Club East Side is proud to recognize Bob Fitzgerald as its 2024 Member of the Year.

BOOK BUZZ

Bonnie Easton

New books from bestselling authors have been released recently.

Nora Roberts is the grande dame of writing romance and suspense with a paranormal twist. She is starting a new series called the Lost Bride Trilogy. The first book is Inheritance about Sonya Mactavish, a spunky young woman in Boston who breaks up with her cheating fiancé and quits her job with the graphic design firm where they both worked. Coincidentally, she inherits a spooky mansion in Maine from her father's twin brother whom she had never met and moves there. Of course, the house is haunted, and her dreams become filled with the stories of the murders of young brides. The dreams provide clues as to how she can break the curse. She must live in the house for three years to collect her inheritance.

Long Island: A Novel by Colm Toibin is the long-awaited sequel to his bestseller Brooklyn (2009). The author revisits Eilis Lacey and her husband, Tony Fiorello, 20 years later in 1976 on Long Island where they live with their two teenagers. Her husband's relatives surround them in the same neighborhood. Tony owns a plumbing business, and she is a bookkeeper. One day, an Irishman shows up at her door and tells her that his wife is expecting Tony's child. He tells her that when the baby is born, he will leave it on her doorstep. Eilis is distraught and decides to visit the home of her birth and reconnect with her family. She wants nothing to do with Tony's child, and she sees her old flame again, Jim Farrell, in her hometown. As they rekindle their relationship, he fails to mention that he is engaged to her best friend. A love triangle develops.

Some of Us Are Looking is the second installment of Carlene O'Connor's County Kerry Mystery series. The first book is No Strangers Here. The setting is the beautiful Dingle Peninsula on the southwest coast of Ireland. The crime solvers are Detective Sergeant Cormac O'Brien and veterinarian Dimpna Wilde. Not in O'Connor's usual cozy mystery style, this book is darker and more sinister than her other popular series. A caravan of young RV travelers selling their wares are camping nearby when an elderly local is killed in a hit-and-run accident. Animals are found mutilated. One of the young campers is found dead, tied to a tree with a rabbit's foot wrapped around her wrist and her left hand missing. Dimpna is horrified at what is happening to the animals, but more horrified that there may be a serial killer on the loose. O'Brien and the vet join forces to investigate.

The Mayo Society promotes cultural, charitable, scientific and/or literary exchanges between the People of the United States and the People of Ireland, with particular emphasis on County Mayo, including but not limited to research into the life and times of Irish immigration to America and the study of Irish and Irish-American history.

Each year, the Mayo Society of Greater Cleveland funds a scholarship program between John Carroll University and the National University of Ireland, Galway.
