Steak Shoot is Back!

Pat Dowd

Believe it or not, we're starting our 10th series of Steak Shoot fun at 7:30 pm, Thursday, April 19! This "bingo like" game has certainly made enthusiastic fans out of so many people, and the mouth-watering steaks bring the many winners back for more.

For those of you who have never played, it's as easy as 1-2-3. You simply pick your rack of three cards from a wide selection, cover each card as the caller calls your numbers, and as soon as all three of your numbers are covered, yell "STEAK!" Each winner receives a package of two 8 oz. strip steaks – and they are delicious!

So plan ahead right now – come alone or with a group or friend. The 3rd Thursday of the month from April through November is "Steak Shoot" night. Cost is only $10 per rack of three cards, or $20 for three racks. Your admission price enables you to play 24 regular games and our Bonus games.

Each night we also have a cash raffle -1/3 of the proceeds to the winner, 1/3 to the Padraic Pearse Center, and 1/3 to the "Holiday Cash" winners in November. Each month the "Holiday Cash" builds, and previous months' winners go back into the barrel for every drawing.

The Padraic Pearse Center is looking forward to another great "Steak Shoot" season and hope you'll join in the fun. See you at 7:30 pm on April 19!

BOOKBUZZ

Bonnie Easton

My selections this month are an assortment of goodies for you, but the common denominator of all three is death.

Girl Unknown: A Novel by Karen Perry (pseudonym for authors Karen Gillece and Paul Perry) is a thriller about undergraduate Zoe Harte who tells her history professor, David Connolly, that she is his daughter by his former lover. His wife and two children believe she has ulterior motives. Two unreliable narrators take us through the growing hatred that leads to murder. Is Zoe a manipulator, or just a girl desperate to be loved?

For true crime fans: West Cork is an audio documentary of a podcast narrated by Sam Bungey and Jennifer Forde. French film producer Sophie Toscan du Plantier was beaten to death days before Christmas 1996 outside her home in Schull, West Cork. The brutal crime has never been solved, although there were several interesting suspects. Amazon offers the audio for free until May 9.

I Am, I Am, I Am: Seventeen Brushes with Death by award-winning Irish novelist Maggie O'Farrell is a memoir of 17 essays of the author's near-death experiences. She tells of a dangerous childhood, accidents, an encounter with a disturbed person and her experiences with her daughter Astrid who suffers with chronic eczema and the constant fear of anaphylactic crises from allergies that send her to the emergency room 12-15 times a year. In the end, she believes her brushes with death are life-affirming and meaningful through all of its chaos and randomness.

PADRAIC PEARSE BOOK DISCUSSION

After a month off, the Padraic Pearse Book Discussion is back on schedule. At 7:15 pm, Friday, April 20 we will gather in the Board Room to discuss Saints for All Occasions: A Novel by J. Courtney Sullivan. Two young sisters, Nora and Theresa Flynn, leave their small village in Ireland for a new life in Boston. Nora, the responsible one, marries a man she isn't sure she loves. Theresa is a party girl and is caught up in all the glitz and glamour of the big city, and becomes pregnant. Fifty years later, the two sisters share a secret, but they haven't spoken in years. Nora has four grown children, each living their separate lives. Theresa is a cloistered nun in Vermont. A death in the family dictates that they must come together and face the consequences of the decisions they made all those years ago.

Our spring schedule is:

April 20: Saints for All Occasions: A Novel by J. Courtney Sullivan

May 18: A Man Called Ove: A Novel by Fredrik Backman

June 15: The Ninth Hour: A Novel by Alice McDermott

A STAR-SPANGLED AFFAIR LADIES ONLY LUNCHEON & RAFFLE

Pat Dowd

Ladies, the big day is Sunday afternoon, April 29! Some of you ordered your tickets before they were even printed, and as everybody knows, this event sells out faster than ever, so don't be disappointed - get your tickets now. The committee has been planning a great afternoon for you.

This year's theme is "A Star-Spangled Affair" - and while we originally planned to highlight the 40s, our emphasis is really on patriotism and the role women played in that time period when so much was at stake in our own country and abroad. So plan to wear your own combination of a red, white and/or blue outfit as you sip one of our specialty drinks of the day, catch up on all the latest happenings, enjoy a delicious luncheon, decide which favorite Chinese auction packages you'd like, or be a lucky big cash winner on the main board and the sideboards.

Doors open at 1 pm, luncheon is at 2 pm and the raffle and auction are at 3 pm. Tickets are still only $40 each, and are available from: Thomasine Barner, Peggy Bennett, Amy Bopp, Martha Chrosniak, Eileen Garin, Bree Gurry, Dolly Luskin, Kevin McCluskey, Diane Probst, Maggie Gurry Spellman, Pam Splittorf, and Judy Wade. If the people listed above are out of tickets, give me a call at 440-429-5151. Because it's such a fun afternoon just for women, don't hesitate to invite relatives, friends, neighbors, co-workers, former classmates. Everyone will have a great time and won't want the afternoon to end!

Get your tickets NOW! Don't forget, "UNCLE SAM WANTS YOU!" (And so do we~!!)

40 Anniversary Mass January 14, 2018

It was a wonderful morning celebration at the Club. Fr. Tom Johns was our Celebrant. It is always great having him with us. He shared some of his memories of the club thru the years.

The music was led by Kathy Siath and she was accompanied by Mary Beth Ratchko-Gamez. The sound was just delightful. A big thanks to Pat Homan for organizing the mass and setting up the hall.

Also, thank you to Colin Hatcher for serving the mass.

After mass we all enjoyed an awesome breakfast cooked and served by Kevin McCluskey and his crew of Michael Byrne, Bill Homan, John Gurry and Tommy Curran.

Thanks to all who came and participated in the liturgy and celebration.
