Kerry Night in the USA - November 20, 2019

Enjoy an evening of Irish ballads, folk and rebel music from Dreams of Freedom. And Irish Dancing by David Geaney, a Dingle native 5 time world champion ,as seen in Velocity on Broadway, (all sold out shows) and Britain's Got Talent. This promises to be a great night of entertainment from two great acts from Kerry, Ireland. Dreams of Freedom is a ballad, folk and rebel band. Dreams of Freedom strives to carry on the proud culture and traditions of Ireland through songs and stories. They are also fun!!!! . This is one of their passions, telling the story of Irish history through song and music and in their own way trying to preserve the long history of Ireland, from famines and rebellions to old stories and songs.

After an illustrious competitive career, amassing every major title, he has now set his sights on choreographing and performing around the world. Famous for his impromptu performances in his family owned bar, The Dingle Pub, and his performances with world renowned band, Joanie Madden & Cherish The Ladies, you are sure to be in for a good time!

A CHRISTMAS SPECTACULAR SHOW!

Pat Dowd

The Padraic Pearse Center is excited and honored to announce that we are bringing the Andy Cooney Christmas Show to our Club on Sunday, December 15!

Those of you who are long-time members of the Club know how vibrant and talented Andy and his band are, but now we have the additional attraction of a truly unique Christmas show with the appearance of special guest, Christopher Macchio, of the New York Tenors, as well as the ever-popular Irish dancers that are part of Andy's show.

The New York Tenors, including Andy and Chris, have sold out Carnegie Hall multiple times, and will, in fact be performing there the week before our show.

We know that all of you will want to do something special for the Christmas holiday this year, and this show can't be beat. Make your plans now with family and friends to join us for this memorable afternoon.

To make this event even more special we will have a dinner show. Doors will open at 1 pm, dinner will be at 1:30 pm, and the show will be at 3 pm. Tickets for the dinner and show are $40.

For reservations and tickets, call Pat Dowd, 440.429.5151 or Mary Jo Gurry, 216.375.5468. Make checks payable to The Padraic Pearse Center.

If you want to give someone a gift to remember this year, the Andy Cooney Christmas Show is surely one that won't be forgotten.

ANOTHER FUN TIME FOR ALL!

Pat Dowd

September's Steak Shoot had a variety of people in attendance – including Thirsty Thursday regulars, Indians fans, and of course our "bring 'em on!" steak lovers.

The opening set was off to a good start with Kathy Dowd, Susan Cooper, Sean Flanagan and Stephen Pyle leading the way. They were soon followed in Set 2 by Mary Jane Ciaviarelli, Sue Obojski, Ann Turk, Mary McCluskey and Kathy Dowd.

The third set gave us some new winners in Sherry Uhlmann, Linda Walsh, Amy Logan and Amy Bopp. Set 4 happy winners were Cookie Morgan, Ann Turk, Sue Obojski, Jean Walsh and Vic Szokan.

Intermission meant time for dessert, a refreshing beverage, and 50-50 tickets. Amy Bopp and Pam Splittorf graciously did the honors with the tickets, and then it was back to serious business of winning steaks!

Set 5 first-time winner Al Mandato was soon followed by Ann Turk, Sue Obojski, and Vic Szokan. The final regular set winners were Sean Flanagan, Kathy Foster, Pat Pease, and Mary McCluskey.

Our first two bonus round winners were Al Mandato and Cookie Morgan who each won 4 steaks. Susan Cooper took home hamburgers and buns, while Amy Bopp was the winner of butterfly pork chops. To close out the night Pam Curiale was thrilled to win $50 in the cash drawing. She and her dad, Al Mandato, had a fun time at Steak Shoot this month.

This season is winding down with only two more sessions to go – Thursday, October 17 and November 21 at 7:30 pm. The November session will include the Holiday Cash drawing which includes all tickets for this season, but - you must be present to win. So plan on joining us for the final two Steak Shoot fun and games!

Bookbuzz Bonnie Easton

It's time to curl up in your favorite chair with a good book and a hot cup of tea.

Being Various: New Irish Short Stories by Lucy Caldwell offers 24 gems by such bestselling Irish authors as Stuart Neville, Adrian McKinty, Sally Rooney, and Kevin Barry. Rewind by Catherine Ryan Howard is a thriller about a social media star who desires some quiet time in a remote cottage near Cork when she suspects her husband of having an affair, but someone is watching her every move with a hidden camera. Her husband reports her missing after a few days and a Dublin journalist follows up on the story to discover what may have happened to her. There are lots of creepy suspects with secret pasts.

Country: A Novel by Michael Hughes takes place in Northern Ireland around 1996 as both sides of the conflict between the IRA and the British attempt an uneasy ceasefire. Reviewers of this book are calling it a modern version of Homer's Iliad. Nellie is a British informant married to an IRA soldier. British Special Forces rolls out against her husband's unit and the IRA retaliates as Nellie is transported out of the country. Nothing much has changed from ancient Greece to modern day.

Have you begun planning your holiday baking? A good place to start is Bigger Bolder Baking: A Fearless Approach to Baking Anytime, Anywhere by Irish-born baker Gemma Stafford who has her own YouTube baking show. She features basic recipes like banana bread and cinnamon rolls as well as Irish favorites like shortbread and rhubarb crumble, but she tackles more challenging recipes like White Chocolate and Mascarpone Mousse and Salted Butterscotch Pots de Crème. Great for both family treats and special occasions. Happy Reading!

Padraic Pearse Book Discussion

On Friday evening, November 15, at 7:15 pm, we will discuss When All Is Said by Anne Griffin. She poses the questions to all of us: If you had to pick five people to sum up your whole life, who would they be? Maurice Hannigan, 84 years old, sits on a bar stool to toast those five people in his life as he tells his own story of joy and regret.

Join us January 17, 2020 to discuss Witch Elm by Tana French.

For book discussion group updates and more reading suggestions, check out padraicpearsecenter.weebly.com.

Giving Back

The Bluestone Division of the Ancient Order of Hibernians has kept very busy throughout the summer months. Most recently they had a vendor food booth at The Ohio Celtic festival in Mentor where they earned money to help with their scholarship program. You will also see thank you notes from students and faculty from St. Jerome's School where their gym was newly painted thanks to the Hibernians and Mullin Brothers Painting. A lot of good works behind the scenes by this group who meet at the Irish American Club East Side on the 3rd Monday of the month at 7 pm in the lower level. For more information check out their Facebook page Bluestone AOH. Also look for information to come for their big fundraiser on January 26, 2020.

LOCAL REPORTS

CLEVELAND, OHIO

Local 120 Retiree is Proud of his Grandsons

William Dwyer, a retired 68-year member of Pipefitters Local 120, Cleveland, OH, is proud that his other two grandsons earned their Eagle Scout status. Grandson Matthew Dwyer's project was to clear a trail and install trail markers in a Geauga County park in 2011. Grandson Andrew Dwyer's project was to construct platforms over wet and low areas of a hiking trail in a Geauga County park in 2018. Now four of Brother Dwyer's grandsons have achieved this honor.

Congratulations to all four grandsons on achieving Eagle Scout status!
