“STEAK SHOOT” – MORE WINNERS, MORE FUN!

Pat Dowd

What a great night it was at our July “Steak Shoot” as the games were quickly won and the winners loved every minute of it. Mary McCluskey was our caller for the evening and the first set winners were Rita McNeely, Louise Seiffert, Bob Fitzgerald, Helen Vura, Peggy Bennett, and Marilyn Paulin. Louise was our first “virgin” winner of the night and also won an extra $5 for winning in 5 numbers or less!

Set 2 rewarded Carolyn McFaul, Martha Beck, Kathy Foster, Mary McCluskey and Susie Cooper with two steaks each, and we were on a roll. The next set made winners of Mary Alice Curran, Sue Murphy, Martha Beck (again) and Sharon Kane. Mary Alice won the extra $5 in this game for 5 numbers or less.

The last set before intermission was won by Patrick Murphy (along with $5), Cal Ryan, Mary McCluskey (again) and Bonnie Ayers.

Intermission meant refreshments and time to buy those cash drawing tickets. Our “Holiday Cash” jackpot is growing and our monthly cash drawing is eagerly awaited by the players.

Back to the games it was as Amy Bopp, Mary McCluskey (again), Kathy Foster (again), and Clare Williams claimed their winnings. The final regular set of games was won by Cal Ryan (again), Helen Vura (again), Bonnie Ayers (again), and Cal Ryan (again & again)! As you can tell from the evening’s winners – when you’re hot, you’re hot!

In the first bonus round we had a tie with Kathy Foster and Peggy Bennett. After drawing cards, two packages (4 steaks) went to Kathy Foster and one package (2 steaks) went to Peggy Bennett. The cash drawing winning ticket for the month was drawn by Colin Hatcher and it went to Carolyn McFaul! Thanks, Colin, and we heard that you also took home some delicious steaks, thanks to a generous winner.

Our next two Steak Shoots are Thursday, August 17 and September 14 at 7:30pm in the Phil Walsh Cabaret Room. Please note the September date is the second Thursday of the month, due to the Club trip the following week. Hope you’ll join us for a great night!

BOOKBUZZ

Bonnie Easton

Selections for this month are by authors of literary fiction. Strong characters drive the stories rather than nonstop action.

Solar Bones by Mike McCormack takes readers into the spirit world. The spirit of Marcus Conway returns on All Souls Day to look back on his life. He remembers his hard-working father on the farm and his own life as a father, a husband, a civil engineer, and all of the events happening in the world around him that shaped his life and those of the people he loved.

In Paul Lynch’s Grace: A Novel, Grace Coyle is just 14 years old when her pregnant mother hacks off her hair and dresses her in boys clothes to leave her home. Her mother is doing her a favor. It is 1845 at the beginning of Ireland’s Great Famine. She learns survival skills as she scavenges, steals and hustles to cope in the world of hunger and death that surrounds her.

John Boyne (author of the children’s book Boy in the Striped Pajamas) tells the story of Cyril Avery, an orphan who is adopted by an eccentric couple. He grows up in post-World War II Ireland. He fears being outed as a homosexual in a repressive country as he searches for his identity. His guardian angel, Mrs. Goggin, protects him as much as she can and offers advice that shapes his life. Both funny and tragic, the story intertwines the history of Ireland during this one man’s life in The Heart’s Invisible Furies.

For more reading suggestions, check out padraicpearsecenter.weebly.com. Happy Reading!

PADRAIC PEARSE BOOK DISCUSSION

The Padraic Pearse Book Discussion group will discuss Valiant Gentlemen: A Novel by Sabina Murray. The novel covers 40 years of friendship and betrayal between Irish humanitarian and patriot Roger Casement and his friends Herbert Ward and his Argentinian-born wife Saria Sanford. They have a nomadic lifestyle as the author tells of misadventures in the Congo, cannibalism, the Wards’ family life and Casement’s covert homosexuality. As World War I approaches, Ward and his teenage son join the Army to fight the Germans. Casement works with the Germans to obtain guns to arm the Irish against their oppressors, the British. The friendship of the two men is tested as they fight on opposing sides of the war. Please join us at 7:15 p.m. Friday, September 15 in the boardroom.

Schedule of future meetings:

October 20: The Necklace: A Novel by Claire McMillan
November 10: Ashes of Fiery Weather: A Novel by Kathleen Donohue

For the schedule and book reviews, see padraicpearsecenter.weebly.com.

FAMINE MEMORIAL MASS

Pat Dowd

The 18th Annual Famine Memorial Mass will be celebrated by Father Jim O'Donnell at 5 p.m., Saturday, September 16 at the Famine Memorial site in the Flats.

Since the dedication in 2000, hundreds come to the site every year to remember and honor those who fled the famine and left Ireland to seek a better life in America. Sadly, the "coffin ships" prevented many from reaching our shores. Many of our ancestors were among those brave people – some perished, while others were able to make their way here.

"Lest we forget" – this Mass is our way of remembering the sacrifices that were made by so many Irish men, women, and children. Also, at this Mass, let us pray in a special way for the continued healing of Fr. Jim.

Please join us at this beautiful site on the Cuyahoga River, across from The Flat Iron, as we come together for the Memorial Mass. Afterwards, stop in for a bite to eat at one of the oldest Irish establishments in the Flats.
