Thirsty Thursdays are Back

Every year the Thirsty Thursday Committee has looked to improve within our limitations. This year we will continue this practice. Beginning with the Thursday after Memorial Day and continuing through a Guardians World Series run, or most likely the Thursday after Labor Day, the Campbell-O'Brien Patio will be the place to be! However, this year we will not have an extensive menu most weeks but will have ½ lb. cheeseburgers ($6) and ¼ lb. hot dogs ($4) along with condiments and toppings each week.

In addition, we will have four monthly summer Thirsty Thursday dinners ($17). The menu will include: BBQ Pork Ribs, Grilled Chicken, Baked Beans, Potato, Roll and Butter, and Coleslaw. This menu will be available on the following Thursdays: June 13, July 11, August 1 and September 5. There will be no presale tickets for these dinners, it is first come, first served. Burgers and hot dogs will be available on the special dinner days.

On the special dinner Thursdays, we will also have live entertainment on the patio. Utilizing our new TV in the upper hall, all Guardians games will be broadcast on the patio, weather permitting. As always, our bartenders will be serving festive summer drinks all season. Keep an eye out for special promotions from our Pack the Pub Committee, too!

We are looking for volunteers to not only assist on the special dinner evenings but also to help with preparations and grilling each week. Please contact Tim Neary at nearytim@gmail.com or 440-382-0669 if you can to offer a hand.

See you on the patio this summer!

A Royal Extravaganza Recap

Bree Gurry

What an afternoon filled with crowns and gowns! The Padraic Pearse Center would like to thank all of our 195 guests for looking their best and having a royally good time at our Queen for a Day raffle on April 21.

This was our second year hosting this type of raffle and ladies you had a BALL! From energetically weaving your way through all 38 baskets in the main raffle and our three specialty options to fully committing to our Heads or Tails 50/50, you made the day one for the books. Plus, you all looked fabulous sitting on the throne at our photobooth! We cannot WAIT for next year!

We'd also like to thank our servers, bartenders and other volunteers who helped make this day possible. The Padraic Pearse Center has plenty in store for 2024 including speakers, steak shoots, and our Fall Reverse Raffle on Oct 19th

BOOK BUZZ

Bonnie Easton

Here are a couple of historical fiction titles to start off with this month.

Ashley Herzog is a Cleveland writer who has published two recent books on the Irish immigrating to America. Lake Erie Monsters: A Story of the Cleveland Irish, published in 2019, takes place in 1888 and is based on the author's own ancestors. Mamie Chambers leaves Ireland with her fiancé, Peter, and her two brothers, but Peter disappears and is nowhere to be found. Mamie finds work in a saloon with Kate Morrison. They run into trouble with the local mob and with gossiping neighborhood women who disapprove of two women operating a bar. And who is this guy who shows up and claims to be Peter when Mamie knows he is an imposter?

In 2022, the same author released Many a Knot: A Story of the Titanic Irish. Mary Mullins attended Loretta Convent School for Girls in Dublin. When she finishes her studies, she runs away from her wealthy, abusive family with her friend Denis Lennon, to board the Titanic in Queenstown. They have chosen her a husband whom she does not love. Her oldest brother chases the couple to the docks with a gun. Four days after the ship has set sail, it hits an iceberg. Mary and Denis were played in the successful film Titanic as Jack and Rose by Leonardo DiCaprio and Kate Winslet.

What is more traditionally Irish than soda bread? A new cookbook published this year has some suggestions for variations. Irish Soda Bread Cookbook: Easy Homemade Irish Soda Bread Recipes: Delicious Ways to Make Irish Soda Bread by Alicia Rowley starts with the four-ingredient original recipe of flour, baking soda, buttermilk, and salt from the 1800s and adds variations like caraway seeds, raisins, chocolate chips, and other modern-day twists. Serve warm with a pat of Irish butter.

Tomorrow with Bayonets: Dublin: July 1921-July 1922 is available on Kindle. Derek Molyneux and Darren Kelly tell the story of the turbulent days of the Irish Civil War. The clashes between the Provisional Government's National Army and the IRA are brutal with civilians caught in the crossfire and Michael Collins leading the charge. Explosions, assassinations, and unending warfare define the era with brothers fighting against brothers. The question is, can Ireland survive its growing pains?

Oldies but goodies for this month: Star of the Sea by Joseph O'Connor, When All Is Said by Anne Griffin, To School Through the Fields by Alice Taylor, the Nuala Anne McGrail romantic suspense series by Andrew Greeley, and the Of Irish Blood trilogy by Mary Pat Kelly (Galway Bay, Of Irish Blood, and Irish Above All).

More reading suggestions can be found at PadraicPearseCenter.weebly.com. Happy Reading!

HE SAID. . .SHE SAID. . .
