The new month brings some good reading choices that I hope you will enjoy.

Days Without End: A Novel by Sebastian Barry is the love story of Irish immigrants John Cole and Thomas McNulty as they travel through the United States. In this historical novel, they join the army and fight Indians out West, join the Union Army during the Civil War, spend time in Andersonville Prison Camp, and informally adopt an Indian daughter. Barry draws pictures in words of the beautiful American landscape against the carnage of war.

Lydia Peelle's debut novel The Midnight Cool: A Novel is the story of an Irish immigrant, Billy Monday, and his young friend, Charles McLaughlin. They are grifters in Tennessee who are selling mules to the British Expeditionary Force in 1916. The con men are swindled themselves when they buy a killer horse named Midnight Cool that cannot be tamed. Of course, there is a love story with Charlie falling in love with the beautiful daughter of the landowner who sold them the horse.

In Nine Folds Make a Paper Swan, author Ruth Gilligan ties together three stories from three different time periods to tell the story of the Jewish community in Ireland. The first is the story of a Lithuanian family bound for the United States in the early 1900s, but they land in Ireland instead. The second relates the story of a traumatized mute boy in a mental institution in 1958 who befriends his roommate, a Jewish war hero. The third story takes place in present day as a young journalist who wants to marry her Jewish boyfriend must consider his ultimatum: first she must convert to his religion.

Asking for It by Louise O'Neill tells the story of 18 year-old Emma who is on the verge of taking on the world when she attends a party in her small Irish town. Emma takes a pill local boys give her and then can't remember the events of the evening, but the internet is blasting pictures that the whole town sees, leaving the boys charged with rape and Emma's reputation and psyche in ruins. Recommended by the publisher for ages 12 and over.

Happy Reading!

PADRAIC PEARSE BOOK DISCUSSION

Our group has enjoyed many wonderful discussions in the last few months. All we are missing is you.

Please join us at 7:15 pm on Friday, April 21 in the board room for a discussion of Little Red Chairs: A Novel by noted Irish author Edna O'Brien. A stranger arrives in a small Irish village and convinces the town that he is a healer and sex therapist from Eastern Europe. Vlad is charismatic and pulls the locals under his spell. A young married woman falls in love with him and begs him to give her the child that her husband cannot. He is exposed as a war criminal from Serbia where he committed atrocities during the Siege of Sarajevo. Fidelma is disgraced when her husband leaves her, so she flees to England, but she finds her courage to confront Vlad at The Hague where he is tried for war crimes.

All of you are welcome to join us in the coming months. Our meeting schedule is:

May 19: Summer Before the War: A Novel by Helen Simonson

June 16: Secrets of Roscarbury Hall: A Novel by Ann O'Laughlin

July 21: Leaving Lucy Pear: A Novel by Anna Solomon

August 18: Wonder by Emma Donoghue

September 16: Valiant Gentlemen: A Novel by Sabina Murray

Check out www.padraicpearsecenter.weebly.com/talking-about-books.html for the current schedule of the Padraic Pearse Book Discussion.

ONCE AGAIN IT'S TIME FOR "STEAK SHOOT"!

Pat Dowd

We begin our ninth series of "Steak Shoots" - the fun game that has everyone coming back for more - at 7:30 pm on Thursday, April 20!

What a fun time so many people have had playing this simple game and socializing with many new and old friends and acquaintances. And all the while, lots of delicious steaks are won by many lucky people.

We'll also start a new "Holiday Cash" jackpot again which means in addition to building up this jackpot, you'll also be eligible to win the monthly cash drawings if you purchase at least one ticket for a dollar.

Cost for 1 "rack" of 3 cards is only $8 and you play 24 games plus the bonus rounds with that rack. You're welcome to purchase additional racks or exchange your racks at the end of every set of four games.

Get your group together or come alone - you'll be glad you did, especially if you're a winner of those great steaks!

“RUN FOR THE ROSES” LADIES LUNCHEON & RAFFLE

Pat Dowd

Once again, before the tickets were even printed, women of all ages were clamoring for them! While our Main Board tickets are completely sold out, the committee has made available Luncheon Tickets for those who didn't get their tickets reserved early.

This year's event, “Run for the Roses” will take place on Sunday afternoon, April 30. Doors will open at 1 pm, luncheon at 2 pm, and all of the raffles and drawings will follow at 3 pm. So ladies, plan on spending the entire afternoon with us, relaxing and enjoying the day out, but also plan on being a winner, because we will have many. The committee has a great day planned for you!

In addition to your main board ticket and a chance to win $1500, you'll also have an opportunity to purchase side board tickets, silent auction tickets, and tickets for a special drawing just for this year's event.

We'll have two specialty drinks flowing from the lighted fountains—the ever-popular “Mimosa” and this year's featured drink – “The Derby Delight”. There will also be a selection of wines and mixed drinks available at the open bar.

Our photographers will be happy to take your picture, or one with your group, as you enter the Winner's Circle! And don't forget, even though hats are optional, we will have special prizes for the prettiest, most creative, and most unusual hats of the day.

Main board tickets are $40 and include your main board raffle ticket, delicious luncheon, and open bar. Luncheon Only tickets are $25 and include everything but the main board raffle. Whether you come with a group, with a friend, or by yourself, we promise you an enjoyable day.

Yes, it's going to be a fantastic afternoon to remember, so if you don't have your tickets yet, call Pat Dowd at 440-429-5151 for tickets.

The Padraic Pearse committee can't wait to see you and help you have a memorable time, but don't wait to get your Luncheon tickets—sellouts are the norm for the ladies!

HE SAID...SHE SAID...

By Rosemary Nugent and the Membership

What is a birthday? It's a time to celebrate the year gone by and to look forward to the year ahead. This April we have many forward-looking friends who will celebrate. May your dreams be big and your worries small and may you have the best birthdays of all!

Before we move into April we send belated birthday wishes to good sport, Jimmy Hanratty who celebrated March 10.

Karoline Ferencak will be foolin' around on April 1. Kevin McCluskey celebrates a presidential birthday on April 3. Any volunteers to cook him dinner? See Kevin for the sign-up sheet.

Ron McGill's daughter, Lindsay, will don the party hat April 4. We wish her a year of sunshine and rainbows.

Here's hoping Bridget Caffrey Piotrowski has a popping good time on April 6, as it's also National Caramel Popcorn Day.

We wish Sean Fitzgerald a happy birthday on April 15. Clearly it won't be taxing since this year's deadline for filing is Tuesday, April 18. We wish him a little green in his wallet for a nice piece of cake, before the government takes a big slice of it.

Kelly Pingstock's daughter Michaela will have nine fine candles on her cake this April 17, which is also her parents' seventh wedding anniversary.

As we noted, April 18 is time to pay the piper. Celebrating another year around the sun are Sue Guzik and Erin Homan, who turns 26. These ladies share their birthdays with boxer Johnny Kilbane so we are certain their days will be knockouts!

Wait, there's a word for it: dodranscentennial and Judy Sullivan will be celebrating it on April 25. Happy 75th birthday, Judy! John Homan will celebrate the last year of his twentieth decade on April 26.

Line up, shoulders back, arms straight, eyes forward and you'll surely spot the cake and ice cream as Heather O'Brien marches into another year on April 28.

We send 10 big birthday wishes to Liam Piotrowski on his special day, April 29.

Marry in April if you can, joy for maiden and for man ... Erica and Matt Drew will celebrate their 11th anniversary on April 22. Happy Anniversary to Erin and JJ Behm who are celebrating one year of splendid blended married life with three amazing children on April 30. Sue and Bruce McGill will celebrate their red-letter day (Ruby is the symbol for a 40th anniversary) on April 30.

No more books and studies, she can stay out late with her buddies... Sharon Spinks retired from the Shaker Heights City School District and will now administer her hobbies and study her precious grandchildren.

And besides birthdays, remember we have other fish to fry—every Friday, in fact, until April 14. Dinner is served between 5:30-7:30 pm with live music at 7 pm.

To have your important events included in this column, please jot them down on the flyers found on the tables at the membership meetings or email me at barbcomiskey@gmail.com.
