My Mother's Chocolate Valentine
by Jack Prelutsky

I bought a box of chocolate hearts,
a present for my mother,
they looked so good I tasted one,
and then I tried another.

They both were so delicious
that I ate another four,
and then another couple,
and then half a dozen more.

I couldn't seem to stop myself.
I nibbled on and on,
before I knew what happened
all the chocolate hearts were gone.

I felt a little guilty,
I was stuffed down to my socks,
I ate my mother's valentine...
I hope she likes the box.

BOOKBUZZ

Bonnie Easton

This month's offerings provide some interesting reading for you.

The Trout: A Novel by Peter Cunningham is a psychological thriller about an Irishman living in Canada who receives a fishing lure in an envelope without a note or return address. He has vague memories of a time when he was seven and may have killed another child. He returns to his hometown in Ireland to reconnect with his estranged father and solve the mystery that is nagging at him and threatening his fragile marriage.

In Girl on the Leaside: A Novel by Kathleen Anne Kenney, Siobhan Doyle is a bartender in her Uncle Kee's pub. Her uncle has acted as her protector since her mother was killed in an IRA bombing when she was five. They immerse themselves in Irish literature and poetry. One day, an American professor of Irish literature, Tim Ferris, stops in the pub and opens her to a world beyond the prison of her small village.

Kathy McKeon was a teenager in the Irish village of Inniskeen when she heard of the assassination of President Kennedy. She could not have imagined then that she would be hired a year later as a personal assistant to Jacqueline Kennedy and an occasional nanny to Caroline and John, Jr. She was with "madam" for 13 years through her courtship with Aristotle Onassis and Robert Kennedy's assassination. Jackie's Girl is the true story of McKeon's life after emigrating to the United States as well as an intimate look at the former First Lady.

By Barbara Comiskey and the Membership

We start off the month by sending out a blanket get well wish to everyone who has been down with colds and flu this past month. So many of us have been hit with these winter-time illnesses. In addition, special get well wishes are being sent to Sue Murphy.

There are lots of birthday greetings in February, beginning with best wishes for a happy birthday to Andrew Marino on February 1. Owen Piotrowski will celebrate his 8th birthday on February 2. Our newest Pom Pom Girl, Kennedy Pingstock's birthday is February 4.

Happy birthday to Norine Hastings on February 5. Cake and candles will be the order of the day for Reilly Gallagher on February 11. Our Schanachie editor, Ann Turk, will celebrate her birthday on Valentine's Day, February 14 as will fellow member, Jim Peppard. Dan Walsh's day to celebrate is February 20. Happy birthday, Dan. Happy 75th birthday to Kathy Durkin on February 23. Also celebrating on the 23rd is Margie Corcoran. Erin Ryant will be a teenager when she celebrates her birthday on February 26 while Georgann Hoag turns 80 on the same day. We wrap up our birthdays for the month when Andrew Ford turns 30 on February 27.

We were sad to hear of the passing of Margaret Quinlivan, a long-time member of the Golden Shamrocks and the Irish American Club East Side. She will be dearly missed. We also want to send our deepest sympathies to Kathy Carey on the loss of her husband, Martin Carey. Martin was a 2012 member of the year tireless in his contributions to the early years of the Club. Here's a blackberry to you, Martin.

Stumbling Home

Three Irishmen, Paddy, Sean and Seamus, were stumbling home from the pub late one night and found themselves on the road which led past the old graveyard.

"Come have a look over here," says Paddy, "It's Michael O'Grady's grave, God bless his soul. He lived to the ripe old age of 87."

"That's nothing," says Sean. "Here's one named Patrick O'Toole, it says here that he was 95 when he died."

Then Seamus yells out, "Good God, here's a fella that got to be 145!"

"What was his name?" asks Paddy.

Seamus stumbles around a bit, awkwardly lights a match to see what else is written on the stone marker, and exclaims, "Miles, from Dublin."

DREAMS OF FREEDOM

Dreams of Freedom is coming to the IACES on Thursday, March 15, 2018. This is the recommendation that I wrote for Richie O'Brien and Dreams of Freedom to be granted a Visa to play in the USA. Don't miss him on his first trip to Ohio!

June 19, 2017

US Customs and Immigration Service

Re: Qualifications of Richard O'Brien

As Entertainment Chairperson for the Irish American Club, East Side I have listened to many Irish bands over the past years. In fact, I have visited Ireland 27 times since my first trip in 1994.

Barely a night has gone by that I have not been entertained by an Irish band in a pub, theatre, festival, or church. I have also planned and escorted 3 bus tours around Ireland. Each time we included Richie O'Brien and Dreams of Freedom as a highlight on the tour.

There are many styles of Irish music to be found in Ireland. (Traditional, Ballads, Celtic Rock, Irish Country, etc.) Richard O'Brien and Dreams of Freedom represent a type of music that is very difficult to find anymore in Ireland. Richie preserves the history of Ireland by singing Irish Rebel Songs. Although he does sing ballads, the rebel song is his specialty. My husband and I always begin our trip in Co. Kerry just to hear Richie or Dreams of Freedom. We have heard him sing in the Dingle Pub since 2001. We have also heard him play at the Killarney Towers Hotel. It is rare to hear Irish Rebel music performed in Ireland very often. Many entertainers will just say that they don't sing those songs anymore. It is wonderful to see a young person want to preserve his country's history by singing and explaining the background of each song. Richie's performances are enjoyed by all ages. Each evening they leave with a little more understanding of Ireland's history.

It would be an asset to the Irish American communities in the USA if Richard O'Brien would be granted a Visa.

Respectfully,

Linda L. Burke

Past President, Irish American Club, East Side

Columnist for Ohio Irish American News

Former Delegate to United Irish Societies of Cleveland, Ohio
