Steak Shoot 10th Year Winding Down Pat Dowd

Our October Steak Shoot brought out many regulars and some new players, all anxious to stock up on some steaks before the season winds down in November.

Judy Wade started out as a winner quickly in set 1, soon followed by Marie Cicconetti, Carolyn McFaul and Kathy Dowd.

Our caller for the evening, Mary McCluskey, was still recuperating from her knee surgery, but as always wasted no time in making winners of Sue Murphy, Gerry Spisich, Donna Baioni, Ann Turk and Mary, herself, in Set 2. (Donna's lucky quarters worked again!)

Moving right along, our next group of happy winners included Kathy Foster, Louise Ruffner, Marti Chrosniak and Carolyn McFaul.

Set 4 winners taking home steaks were Sharon Wade, Sharon Kane, Gerry Spisich and Marie Cicconetti. Then it was time for refreshments and a chance to purchase tickets for the monthly cash drawing, as well as for the "Holiday Cash" drawing in November.

Soon it was back to the business of winning steaks in Set 5 for Vic Skrovan, Vickie Rowell, Sue Obojski and Amy Bopp. Heading into Set 6, we had three winners for the first game – Sue Murphy, Joy McBrien, and Sue Obojski. The final regular games were won by Dave Baioni and Louise Ruffner. (Donna must have given Dave one of her lucky quarters!)

In the Bonus game, three packages (six steaks) were won by Rita McNeely, and the Grand Bonus of 12 boneless pork chops was won by Mike Keenan. Keeping the winning streak in the family, the monthly cash drawing winner was Peggy Bennett, who took home $59.

Last month's Steak Shoot at 7:30 pm Thursday, November 15 was our last one for this 10th season. All cash drawing tickets purchased April through November was included in our Holiday Cash drawings that night, but don't forget – the winners needed to be present! It was great night – be sure to join us for fun, games, refreshments and cash in the coming 11th season in Spring of 2019!

Bookbuzz Bonnie Easton

As we near the end of 2018, here are several historical fiction titles you might enjoy. The first two items are fictional accounts of real people.

Nuala O'Connor in Becoming Belle tells the rags-to-riches story of Isabel Bilton. She is the eldest daughter in a middle-class military family who leaves home to become Belle in a dance hall in London. In 1891, she marries a member of the Irish aristocracy to become the Countess of Clancarty. Her husband's family does not approve of the match.

The Kennedy Debutante by Kerri Maher relates the tragic story of Kathleen "Kick" Kennedy of the Irish Catholic Kennedy clan. Her parents, Joseph and Rose, do not approve of her choice in Protestant Billy Hartington, the future Duke of Devonshire. This is the 1940s when marrying outside of your religion meant ostracism from your family. World War II is looming large in Europe where she is living. Do Kick's loyalties lie with her famous family or with the man she loves?

Here are a couple more novels that deal with historical events in the 1900s.

The Latecomers by Helen Klein Ross tells the story of 16 year-old Bridey who runs away from home to America in 1908 with her fiancé Thom, but he dies of a fever aboard the ship and leaves Bridey pregnant. She finds work as a maid for the Hollingworth family. Her employer adopts her son Vincent. Tragedy strikes and secrets haunt the family for decades until Vincent's daughter unravels the mystery.

From Irish author Peter Cunningham, Acts of Allegiance: A Novel, the story of a man with divided loyalties in Northern Ireland in the 1960s. Marty Ransom has a job with the Department of External Affairs. Alison is an Anglo-Irish friend of Marty and his wife Sugar who is working for the British Home Office. She recruits him to spy for the English and they enter into an affair. His cousin, Iggy, is a bomb maker for the IRA. With the violence of Bloody Sunday, and the English desperate to find the bomber, Marty is conflicted. Whose side should he take?

For children, learning history may be more enjoyable when presented as a story. Hunger: A Tale of Courage by Donna Jo Napoli is aimed at children ages 9-12. In 1846 in Galway, Lorraine is 12 years old and is struggling with her family during the Potato Famine. Lorraine's friend Susanna helps her friends survive by sneaking food to them, but she doesn't understand the desperation and hopelessness they feel. Told in first person, the reality of the famine comes alive.

Touch a life... BECOME A HOSPICE VOLUNTEER

Hospice is a philosophy of care, not a place.
We care for our patients wherever they call home.

Volunteers are limited only by their imagination.
Provide companionship and comfort to patients and families as well as presence in the final hours. Help them to share their story by assisting with legacy work. Provide legal guidance, a haircut, assist with transportation, light housework, meal preparation, or perhaps run errands. Share your clerical and organizational skills in the office. Represent us through Community Outreach at health fairs and agency events.

Please join us at our next
Volunteer Education Series!

Teens, Attorneys, Hairdressers, and Clerical volunteers need only attend the first four hours of training on November 27th

CLUB UNITS

Linda Walsh

Each year on Family Day I see so many young families with children and wonder why some of these children do not march in our Club units. You see our Club Units perform at many of our functions during the month of March and march in the St. Patrick's Day Parade. I am writing this article to encourage members to participate in our marching units. We have the Pom Pom Unit, the Jack McDonough Fife and Drum Corp and we are currently working on revamping our Flag Corp. These units practice on Sundays from 11 am – 1 pm, beginning the first Sunday in January which this year will be January 5, 2019. We know that young families are very busy and wanted to let the parents know that they are free to drop off their children at 11 am and pick them up at 1 pm. We have plenty of adult supervision and would love to have your children join us. We are looking to build our numbers.

We also have our Ladies Drill team who practice on Thursday evenings beginning in January and the Pipes and Drums of the Irish American Club East Side who practice on Thursday evenings. The pipe band also gives lessons to any interested members at no charge. Please feel free to contact me with any questions you may have at 216-538-1358. If you are interested in finding out more information on the units please fill out the form below and mail it to:
