“STEAK SHOOT”

“BUY TWO, GET ONE FREE”

Pat Dowd

At the time we went to press, our first “Steak Shoot” night of the season had not been held, so we’ll have to let you know next month who the winners were for April.

But what we can tell you is that a new pricing structure will be in effect with the May “Steak Shoot” games. Because the price of beef has increased significantly, as most of you already know, we found it necessary to raise the cost of our games.

Beginning in May, one “rack of 3 cards” will be $10. You can play the entire night with this one rack, and that includes 24 regular games and the bonus games. But for $20, you will get not two, but THREE cards! Since many people buy more than one rack of cards each month, this may end up saving them some money, and we will still cover our costs too. For instance, if someone usually buys three racks of cards at $8 each, their total cost would be $24. With the new pricing, three racks will cost $20, a savings of $4.

You do not have to buy two or more cards to play “Steak Shoot” – one rack at $10 is all you need to win! So please join us for these fun nights, and with the beautiful weather we’re anticipating, it’s going to be grilling time!

If there is anyone who has never played “Steak Shoot”, it is a modified “Bingo” game that everyone can play. Hope to see you at our next game nights – Thursday, May 18 and June 15 at 7:30 pm in the Phil Walsh cabaret room.

“Steak Shoot” is sponsored by the Padraic Pearse Center and we thank you for your enthusiastic support of these games!

BOOKBUZZ

Bonnie Easton

As we welcome a new month, I offer some springtime reading suggestions.

Nora Roberts has millions of fans of her romantic suspense novels. Her latest series is the Guardians Trilogy, a paranormal romance that takes her readers to exotic locales, including the island of Corfu in Greece, Capri and Ireland in search of the stars of fire, water and ice. The six seekers battle a dangerous source of evil to find the stars. The series consists of Stars of Fortune, Bay of Sighs, and Island of Glass.

Author Lisa Carey offers her new book The Stolen Child: A Novel. On St. Brigid’s Island off the western coast of County Clare, an American woman seeks St. Brigid’s Well where the spring water is rumored to have special healing powers and performs miracles. It’s May 1959 and the island’s inhabitants live an isolated life without electricity. The American claims her inheritance of her uncle’s cottage there, but she seeks more. What she encounters is superstition, betrayal and the magic of Irish lore.

Saints for All Occasions: A Novel by bestselling author J. Courtney Sullivan tells the story of two sisters in the 1950s who leave their small village in Ireland for America. Nora and Theresa head in different directions as the older one marries and raises a large Catholic family and the younger one becomes a cloistered nun. A sudden death forces them together to face a secret they share.

The English Daughter by Maggie Wadey is a memoir about a woman trying to discover who her mother really was. Wadey’s mother, Agnes Kavanagh, left County Tipperary for England and married an Englishman. Not until her final years did Agnes finally tell her daughter the story of her childhood in Ireland. The author had always felt that her mother was different and suspected that it was because of her Irishness. After Agnes’ death, Wadey travels to Ireland to connect with her mother’s past.

For more suggestions, check out padraicpearsecenter.weebly.com. Happy reading!

PADRAIC PEARSE BOOK DISCUSSION

The Padraic Pearse Book Discussion will take a break from our usual Irish fare to talk about The Summer Before the War by Helen Simonson at 7:15 p.m., Friday, May 19 in the Board Room. This novel tells the story of Beatrice Nash, a young woman who becomes a Latin teacher in East Sussex in 1914 England. Her father was a well-known scholar and a world traveler, but he left her penniless. Agatha, a matriarch in the town, takes Beatrice under her wing and helps her settle into her new surroundings. Attractive young women at this time didn’t teach Latin classes to young men, so she faces opposition from some of the residents. The outbreak of World War I sends many students to enlist. The town renovates one of its mansions into a hospital for wounded soldiers and the villagers do their civic duty by taking in refugees from war zones in Europe. Please join us to discuss this bestseller. All Club members are welcome!

Our future meeting schedule is:

June 16: The Secrets of Roscarbury Hall: A Novel by Ann O’Loughlin

July 21: Leaving Lucy Pear: A Novel by Anna Solomon

August 18: Wonder by Emma Donoghue

September 16: Valiant Gentlemen: A Novel by Sabina Murray

Check out padraicpearsecenter.weebly.com for the 2017 schedule and reading suggestions.

HE SAID...SHE SAID...By Barbara Comiskey and the Membership

Travel season is already in full swing for a number of our IAC members. Paul Dietrich and his son Brian recently returned from Germany where I'm told they sampled a couple of glasses of beer. Research purposes only, we're sure. By the time you read this, Linda and Jim Burke, Karen Hansen and Barb Thomas will be on their way to Ireland. They leave on May 1 for two weeks in Kenmare, Dingle and Clifdon. It's trip number 27 for Linda, just in case you're keeping track.

A quote from Eva Gabor reads, "I believe in loyalty. When a woman reaches an age she likes she should stick with it." We hope these fine ladies have found the age they like: Let the birthday fun begin on 5-1 as Rhonda Henry celebrates her special day. Happy birthday to Pat Gronick who will be 87 years young on May 1. Cake and ice cream are on the menu on 5-13 to celebrate Sue McGill's special day. 5-19. Sending wishes for an amazing birthday to Beth Gaffney on 5-19 and Jean Walsh on 5-20. You are a year more wonderful! Rounding out our ladies' May birthdays will be a big shout out from Mom, Dad and Michael to Mackenzie Wachter who turns 18 years old on May 29th and Carol Heiss who turns 50 + 10 on May 29 with special wishes from Bob, Erin, J and the Littles. 50 + 10 never looked so good!

Tom and Mary Kay Malone will celebrate their 36th Wedding Anniversary on May 2. Congratulations and best wishes for many more happy years together.

Congratulations to Emilee Walsh, granddaughter of Jean Walsh, who is graduating from Bowling Green State University magna cum laude.

Our best wishes go out to Bill & Pat Homan who will celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary on 5/14. That adds up to 14,600 days or 350,400 hours and one truly blessed family. Congratulations.

A special shout out to Joe and Audrey Shindley. We miss seeing you two.

West Geauga High School's chapter of the National Honor Society recently inducted Elizabeth Marino. Congratulations on this outstanding honor.

Congrats also go to Haley Arena, granddaughter of Chuck and Barbara Comiskey who will graduate from Maumee High School on May 27. She will be heading for The Ohio State University in the fall.

Congrats to Andrew Marino for his terrific basketball season, helping his team win four tournaments.

May's He Said, She Said would not be complete without recognizing the birthdays of our guys. Wishing the happiest of birthdays to Barry Ozebek on 5-11. On 5-18m Jacob Drew will blow out 4 candles this year. Wishing a year of health and happiness to Nick McGill who celebrates his birthday on 5-20, Robert Henry on 5-24 and Kevin Barry on 5-27.

Happy birthday to Patti Nugent as she celebrates her 22,280 day on earth May 22.

And although our wishes are late for Joe Ward's birthday on April 8, we hope your birthday was a wonderful one. Have an amazing year.

To have your important events included in this column, please jot them down on the flyers found on the tables at the membership meetings or email me at barbcomiskey@gmail.com.

Letter from the President

Kevin McCluskey

It's hard to believe it's been almost one year since I became Club President. Where did the time go? We have accomplished many things this year. First, I want to thank the amazing Executive Board that has done a great job and has more to accomplish. We still need to move our Club into the future. I would also like to thank all of our wonderful volunteers. If it weren't for you, our Club could not succeed. That's not to say that we're not looking for new volunteers. We can always use your help.

We want to plan events for members of all ages. If you have any ideas, let us know. It's time to nominate candidates for open positions on the Executive Board. If you are interested, please consider running for office. We can always use new ideas and new people to help us move forward. So once again, thank you all for your support and let's look to a great future.

Looking for Members to join the Policy Manual Committee!

Per the amendment to our by-laws from earlier this year, we will be forming a committee to create a Policy Manual. This committee will be reviewing current practices on how we conduct business and decide on policy. We will have an information meeting on Wednesday May 10th at 7:30 pm in the Pub. Please contact Sarah O'Brien Dirk at 216-337-9004 or obriendirk@gmail.com if you have any questions!

Nominations for Officers 2017-2018

One Monday, May 8, 2017 at the General Membership Meeting, nominations for Executive Board positions will be presented for the 2017-2018 term. Members in good standing who have paid dues for the current year and have attended five (5) meetings in the previous twelve months shall be eligible for nomination to Club offices. Those nominating candidates will come forward with their current membership card and will have two minutes to speak. Once their nomination is seconded the candidate will have one minute to accept the nomination.

The following offices are open for nomination: President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Membership Secretary and two At-Large positions.

The election will take place by secret ballot on June 12, 2017 at the General Membership Meeting. You must have signed in for three (3) meetings in the previous twelve months in order to vote. Absentee ballots will be permitted for the election of officers. Procedures for the submission of absentee ballots shall be established by the Election Committee.

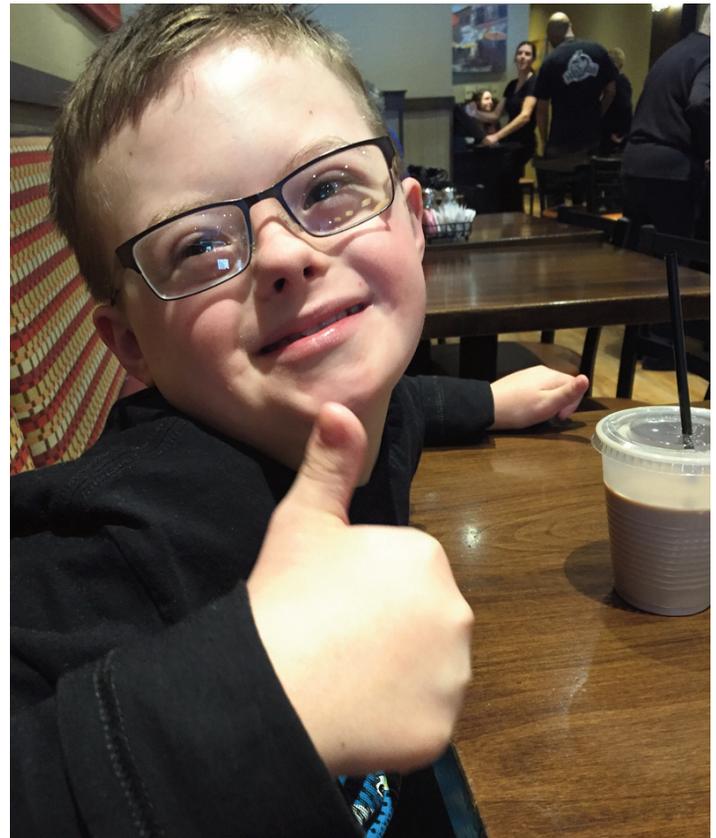

Ladies Communion Breakfast

We are bringing back a favorite event to the club, The Ladies Communion Breakfast. We are pleased to have Fr. Adam DeLeon SJ, who is the son of Nancy Loren and nephew of MaryJo Gurry, as our celebrant.

Ladies gather your family and friends for a lovely morning at the Irish American Club. Any girls that have celebrated their First Communion are encouraged to wear their dress and partake in the procession presenting flowers to the Blessed Virgin's Altar.

A Big Thank You to All!

We have successfully completed our fundraising, and Sam has a spot in the Paws For Ability class of December 2018. Sam can't wait to meet his new friend and protector. Sam is also eager to bring his dog to the Club for all to see. Thank you all so much for your support!
