Steak Shoot Players Love New Location!

Pat Dowd

Our June session of Steak Shoot was a big hit with everyone as we moved upstairs to the main hall. This enabled our players to enjoy the “Thirsty Thursday” food and beverage specials. It also meant that those who have a problem going down to the lower level on the chair or the stairs didn’t have to worry. We received lots of positive comments about the move and will continue to play upstairs for the time being.

Set 1 had six winners – Vic Szokan, Thomasine Barner, Betsy Grinches, Betty McArthur, Mary Alice Curran, and Carol Oroczo. These lucky people were soon followed by Betty McArthur again, Kathy Dowd, Carol Oroczo again, and Kathy Dowd again. Kathy also won in five cards or less and took home an extra $5.

Next it was time for some new winners – Susie Cooper, Merrie Pyle, Pam Splittorf, and Ed Bopp. Following right along in Set 4 were Vickie Rowell, Mary Jane Ciaviarelli, Don Luni, Barb Bopp, and Linnea Meaney.

Soon it was intermission time. Many enjoyed the delicious hot dogs and hamburgers prepared by Kathy Foster and Chris Faith. Some tried Sue McGill’s specialty drink, the “Woo-Woo” and were going back for another. But now, it was dessert time. The orange crush cake seemed to be a big hit, as were the other cakes. Tickets for the monthly cash drawing and the “Holiday Cash” drawing sold quickly and we were soon back to the games.

Set 5 made happy winners of Sue Obojski, Bob Fitzgerald, Anne Duncan, and Kathy Dowd - again. This was her night! Our final regular set was won by Ed Bopp, Merrie Pyle, Peggy Bennett, Amy Bopp, and Jean Walsh.

With all the multiple winners we had, there were only two packages of steaks to award in the first bonus round. Mike Keenan and Carol Oroczo tied for that game, but agreed to split, so each took home one package of two steaks.

The next two bonus games saw Sue Obojski win three packages of skinless, boneless chicken breasts, and Thomasine Barner was the winner of three packages of beautiful boneless pork chops.

Closing out the fun night was our “glitter girl”, Pam Splittorf, who took home $53 and the steaks she had won earlier!

Please join us UPSTAIRS for our next Steak Shoot games on Thursdays August 15 and September 19 at 7:30 pm. Come early for the Thirsty Thursday food and beverages. Whether you come alone or with family and friends – it’s a good time for all.

Padraic Pearse Book Discussion

Join us at 7:15 pm, Friday, August 16 as we continue with the second installment of the Deverill Chronicles Series, The Daughters of Ireland by Santa Montefiore. It is the story of three women: Celia Deverill wants to rebuild her childhood home; the cook’s daughter Bridie Doyle becomes a New York socialite and vows revenge for an old wrong; and Kitty Deverill is a young mother yearning for her childhood sweetheart, Jack O’Leary.

All are welcome to join us for a friendly conversation. These characters carry over from the first book, The Girl in the Castle, and fast became old friends of group.

2019-2020 Schedule of upcoming discussions:

September 27: Secret of the Irish Castle by Santa Montefiore

October 18: What the Wind Knows by Amy Harmon

November 15: When All Is Said by Anne Griffin

Bonnie Easton

This month brings great new titles for you to try.

Ask Again, Yes: A Novel by Mary Beth Keane (Fever) begins in 1973 in a small town north of Manhattan and covers two families for the next 40 years. Two rookie NYPD cops are neighbors who are each settling into marriage with their new brides. As time passes, their children become friends, much to the chagrin of the boy’s mother. She suffers with a mental illness that traumatizes the family. An act of violence changes their lives. The children are forbidden to see each other as one family moves away, but love and forgiveness find a way to help them heal.

The 2019 Man Booker Prize Winner is Milkman by Northern Irish author Anna Burns. An 18 year-old girl who is unnamed tells the story of a town, also unnamed, during the Troubles of the 1970s. It’s a terrifying tale of violence and mistrust. The Milkman, who doesn’t deliver milk, drives flashy cars and starts to stalk the young narrator. He is a leader in the paramilitary. The relationship is discovered by a brother-in-law, which makes the girl interesting and subject to gossip. In these times, to be interesting is to be noticed and to be noticed is dangerous.

In The Favorite Daughter by Patty Callahan Henry, Lena Donohue felt betrayed when she found her younger sister kissing the groom just before the wedding. During the next 10 years, she leaves the town and makes a new life as a New York travel writer. She returns home when she learns her father is losing his battle with Alzheimer’s. She and her siblings collect their family history and photographs to preserve their father’s memories with all its secrets. The effort proves to help the family to move toward the healing that they need.

Happy Reading! More reading suggestions at padraicpearsecenter.weebly.com.

Theresa Argie, The Haunted Housewife

Theresa Argie, The Haunted Housewife, will join us at 7 pm, Friday, August 16 in the Phil Walsh Cabaret Room to discuss her most recent book and ghost hunting experiences in the Cleveland area. This is an exciting new event at the Club that you won't want to miss! Admission is $10 at the door.

Theresa Argie's father, Patrick J. Gallagher, emigrated from County Mayo in the 1950s. Theresa and her family grew up immersed in the Irish culture. As a child, she spent years involved with the West Side Irish American Club. She married a wonderful man with strong family roots and a mutual love for Ireland. Today, Theresa and her husband Jay are proud members of the IACES.

Theresa makes her living as an author and public speaker. She often works with Cathi Weber, aka "The Ghost Lady" of Lake County. Besides their work on the Willoughby Ghost Walk, the ladies are heavily involved with various fundraising events and historic preservation projects. Theresa has penned two books; America's Most Haunted (Penguin Random House 2014) and her latest, Love Beyond the Grave: True Tales of Haunted Hearts (Hestia Media 2018). Theresa shares stories from her new book as well as her personal adventures as a ghost hunter and paranormal investigator. Hear about exotic locations and local hotspots with Cleveland's own Haunted Housewife. Love Beyond the Grave is a collection of real people, actual events, and historic characters whose stories revolve around a common theme of love. But love can take many forms and manifest in remarkable ways; sometimes it can be dangerous or even deadly. This powerful emotion can defy logic and transcend physical death. Beyond normal, each story has a paranormal element. The author explores the tragic, traumatic, and sometimes terrifying elements of these famous tales of love. Examples include: An eccentric couple whose love was so strong, neither distance nor death could keep them apart; a rich playboy seduces a naive farm girl, leading to her inevitable fall from grace, tragic death, and restless afterlife; a tenacious mother, fueled by love and unshakeable resolve, helps her murdered daughter find justice from beyond the grave; a deadly love triangle that made headlines, inspired Hollywood, and crushed the soul of "America's Sweetheart"; the dark side of paradise, where one man's morbid obsession turned a beautiful young girl into a gruesome science experiment; a beautiful castle in Ireland, haunted by young lovers caught in the middle of warring clans; and an entire chapter devoted to animals, remarkable creatures who remain loving and loyal long after leaving this mortal coil. These are just a sampling of the stories included in Love Beyond the Grave: True Tales of Haunted Hearts. The people are real, the events historic, and the ghost stories leave even the most skeptical reader scratching their head.
