“AN AFTERNOON IN THE FRENCH QUARTER”

Pat Dowd

Eleven years of “Ladies Only” events have shown us that our guests love to dress up and be creative. This year’s luncheon and raffle with a New Orleans – “French Quarter” theme again brought out the best in colorful masquerade masks and outfits, including flowing boas. But it didn’t matter what they wore, the women were here to relax and have a good time.

After checking in at the main table, Judy Wade directed them to their group’s table which was colorfully decorated in the traditional Mardi Gras colors of purple, green and gold. Joe Ward, our roving photographer, captured individuals and groups as they came in the door and were amazed at the décor of the hall from the front to the back. Joe was busy all afternoon photographing the activities of the day as well as the many winners.

Ladies selected their favorite numbers from the sideboards and then bought tickets for the 13 Chinese auction items which Linnea Meaney so skillfully arranged. Cindy Dowd and Kathy Dowd were very busy selling auction tickets. At the other end of the room, Maggie Spellman and Bree Gurry did a great job selling tickets on the “Let’s Have a Party” special raffle.

In between buying sideboard tickets, raffle tickets, and trying to decide in which bag to put their tickets, the ladies enjoyed sipping mimosas and the special drink of the day - the New Orleans “Hurricane”, or any one of a number of favorite beverages. Michael Keenan and Chris Faith were our very competent volunteer bartenders and were kept quite busy. A special thanks to Debbie Arth, our resident mixologist, who prepared multiple batches of the “Hurricane”.

Russ Splittorf graciously volunteered again to take the group pictures in front of our glittering and sparkling backdrop. He too, was kept busy as the various tables wanted their unique group captured for our memory book.

By the time we were ready to call the tables for the luncheon, our fifth sideboard was sold out. Not wanting to delay our meal, we decided to not open another board. However, the women had other ideas – they wanted the board opened and within minutes it too was sold out!

The delicious meal prepared by Rick Eberhard and Joe Capuozzo of Koumbaros Catering, fit right in with our theme – fruit and vegetable salad with vinaigrette dressing, Cajun pasta, vegetable medley, bourbon - glazed chicken and jambalaya – with and without shrimp. The dessert brought to each table consisted of cupcakes decorated with purple, green, or gold butter-cream frosting topped with a fleur-de-lis.

Then it was time for the real fun to begin. As we got ready to begin calling the main raffle, Linda Walsh was our very capable caller again this year, assisted by Pat Homan. Kelly Pingstock turned the tickets in the drum. Norine Hastings, Mary McCluskey and Mary Jo Gurry were our verifiers, ensuring that all numbers were correctly called and turned.

Eight lucky (?) ladies were selected to pull 25 numbers each from the drum: Helen Marie McManus, Donna Leary, Debbie Arth, Peggy Simmons, Vickie Rowell, Sherry Carroll, Rosemary Koss, and Rhonda Henry. Judy Wade was ready to distribute gifts to every 25th number winner and the ticket pullers.

After the 195th number was drawn, the noise level increased as those women holding the five remaining numbers on the main board and the six sideboards came to the dance floor to negotiate their winnings. Peggy Bennett, the Padraic Pearse treasurer, was ready to disburse the cash to the winners.

After a five minute break, each remaining number was called, the noise level rose, and winners were ecstatic – 16 – 191 – 112 – 192 and 167!!! Almost all of the boards had agreed to split evenly so we had loads of very happy women. The main board winners were Amy Schulte, Laura Ryan, Judy Loach, Rhonda Henry, and Martha Chrosniak.

Next came the special raffle drawing – “Let’s Have a Party” which included loads of wine and pop, candy, chips, pretzels, chocolates, and more, a large “cold beer” storage bucket, a set of four gold harp Guinness glasses and a set of four Irish Pub Guinness glasses. And the lucky winner was...Judy Harmon!

Next it was on to the 13 Chinese auction items that had attracted just about everyone to put their tickets in one or more bags. As each lucky winner came forward, Joe Ward snapped a picture. And these smiling winners were:

Show Your Dog Some Love	Melissa Daniels
Rhapsody in Blue	Gloria Seibert
It’s Five O’Clock Somewhere	Janet Brunett
What’s for Dinner?	Theresa Cesarespada
Watch My Garden Grow	Liz Sterk
Nothing But the Best for Me	Irene Skala
Tea and Scones, Anyone?	Dorothy Pesosky
Forty Shades of Pink	Madelyn Kelly
Curl Up, Relax, & Have a Sip	Kathy Foster
A Fresh Look for My Bath & Shower	Ann McMahon

As the afternoon began to wind down, nobody wanted to leave, so there was time for going over the events of the day, congratulating the winners, and packing up the prizes to take home.

The Padraic Pearse Center committee began to clean up as efficiently as they had set up the day before. What a great team - Peggy Bennett, Amy Bopp, Marti Chrosniak, Bonnie Easton, Bree Gurry, Dianne Probst, Maggie Spellman, and Pam & Russ Splittorf. We appreciated the additional help of Theresa Keenan Male, Alana Gurry, Cindy, Kathy and Maureen Dowd. It was great to have Eileen Garin back with us after a serious illness.

A very special thank you to Linnea Meaney and Chris Faith for the extra work they did for us for this event.

Some of our team were unable to attend this year's event, but still sold their share of tickets – thanks to Thomasine Barner and Kevin McCluskey - we think your guests had a good time! And we'd also like to thank so many women who have been coming just about every year since we started this event – we appreciate the support you've given to Padraic Pearse. And to those of you who were newcomers, we hope you'll be back with us for our next event. Thank you everyone!!!

STEAK SHOOT'S FIRST NIGHT – DELICIOUS!

Pat Dowd

Opening night of season 11 brought out the regulars and the neophytes, all eager to win the delicious strip steaks that are the prizes in "Steak Shoot."

Without wasting any time, our caller, Judy Wade, awarded the first steaks to Chris Faith, Stephen Pyle, Amy Bopp and Stephen Pyle again.

Continuing where he left off, Set 2 winners were Stephen Pyle, Joe McManus, Peggy Bennett, Jessica Edges, and Cal Ryan. It wasn't long before Bonnie Ayers, Norma Davis, Gerri Owens and Pam Splittorf got in on the action in Set 3. But it was Gerri Owens who won two sets of steaks on two cards in the same game – that was a first for us!

Moving right along to Set 4, the happy winners were Kathy Stanic, Rita McNeely, Amy Bopp, and Stephen Pyle.

Intermission meant it was time for some refreshments and a chance to purchase tickets for the new "Holiday Cash" fund and the evening's cash drawing.

Then it was back to our games and more winners as Stephen Pyle, Kathy Dowd, Helen Marie McManus and Maggie Spellman were glad to claim their steaks. Stephen's total at this point was 10 steaks, but we learned that some of those were for his mother, Merrie, who could not be with us this night. Way to go, Stephen!

Closing out the regular games were Amy Bopp, Betsy Grinches, Kathy Foster and Judy Sullivan. Amy Bopp had a good night and took home six steaks.

Our Bonus games were won by Susan Cooper and Kathy Foster who each took home two packages - four steaks. Helen Marie McManus won some beautiful pork chops, and Kathy Foster was going to grill a beautiful London broil.

Closing out a successful first night, Stephen Pyle won $45 in the cash drawing for April.

Be sure to join us for lots of fun and delicious steaks as we continue the season on Thursday, May 16th and June 20th at 7:30 PM in the Phil Walsh Cabaret Room. Come alone, bring a friend or the whole gang! You'll be glad you did. And if you need more delicious meats and produce, shop where we do - at Sweet Berry Fresh Market.

The Padraic Pearse Center sponsors the monthly Steak Shoot games and thanks you for your support!

PADRAIC PEARSE BOOK DISCUSSION

Join us in the board room at 7:15 pm, Friday, June 21 to discuss the thriller The Ruin by Dervla McTiernan. Detective Cormac Reilly discovered a body of a mother in 1993, an addict who apparently died of an overdose in County Mayo. Then the body of a young man turns up 20 years later of an apparent suicide. In a plot twisted with rape, child molestation, drug dealing, police corruption, and more murders, the two deaths are connected as Reilly and the young man's girlfriend and sister try to solve the crimes.

Upcoming discussions:

July 26: Becoming Belle by Nuala O'Connor

August 16: Daughters of Ireland by Santa Montefiore

September 27: Secret of the Irish Castle by Santa Montefiore

October 18: What the Wind Knows by Amy Harmon

November 15: When All Is Said by Anne Griffin

January 17: Witch Elm by Tana French

For updates on the book discussion group and more reading suggestions, check out padraicpearsecenter.weebly.com.

Bookbuzz Bonnie Easton

A blockbuster by an Irish author was released in the United States after its debut in the UK last year. Normal People: A Novel by Sally Rooney (author of Conversations with Friends) tells the story of the relationship between two fragile young adults, Marianne and Connell. Connell's mother is the housekeeper for Marianne's wealthy family. Rooney explores the nuances of the relationship with their anxieties over sex, class, and social pressures as they grow from teens to college students at Trinity College.

In The Parting Glass by Gina Marie Guadagnino, Mary Ballard is the proper lady's maid to Charlotte Walden. She is privy to the gossip and the confidences of the upper class in 1837 New York society, but her real name is Maire O'Farren who came with her brother Seanin (now known as Johnny Prior) to escape the poverty in Ireland. Johnny, employed as a stable boy, and Charlotte fall in love, but Mary is also in love with her mistress. Charlotte's mother insists that her daughter must choose a proper husband and must do it soon.

Rosaria O'Reilly is an amateur detective in two thrillers written by Irish American author Marian McMahon Stanley. In The Immaculate, she feels compelled to investigate the murder of her former teacher and mentor Sister Mary Aurelius in Boston. In the next installment of the series, Buried Troubles, she puts herself in danger while looking into the death of a young journalism student at the request of his aunt. Her boyfriend is Boston Police Detective Solly Belkin who wishes that she would stay out of his way in solving the case. The investigation takes her from Boston to Ireland.

For nonfiction readers, check out My Father Left Me Ireland: An American Son's Search for Home by National Review senior writer Michael Brendan Dougherty. The author's parents, an Irish father and an Irish American mother, split up before he was born, leaving his mother to raise him alone in New Jersey as his father returns to Ireland. He feels the loss of a father while growing up and longs for a connection to his Irish roots. When his daughter is born, he wants to sing her the old songs and tell her the stories that his mother told him so that she knows who she is. He tells his story in a succession of letters between him and his estranged father.

Please save the date for our Volunteer Appreciation Dinner. The Board wants to thank you for your hard work throughout this past year. If you have chaired a committee, served on a committee, worked behind the scenes and volunteered in any way this is the night for us to say "thank you" for your time and hard work. We will serve dinner along with beer, wine and soft drinks. Please contact Mary Alice Curran at 440-665-8110 or Linda Walsh at 216-538-1358 to let us know if you can attend. We will also put a sign up sheet in the Pub.

Save the Date for our Club Picnic

The picnic is scheduled for Sunday, July 14, 2019 from 11 am – 4 pm at Sims Park, 23131 Lakeshore Blvd in Euclid. The day will begin with Mass at 11 am under the pavilion. The grill will be ready for you to cook your food, and we'll have hamburgers, hot dogs and chips for sale at family friendly prices. Beverages will be available inside the designated area. We'll have games for children and adults. Bring your lawn chairs, picnic blanket, picnic basket and a change of clothes for the kids (there may be an egg toss and a water balloon toss). We are finalizing plans for music. Maybe by July the lake will be warm enough to enjoy a walk along the beach – at your own risk of course. ### Theresa Argie, The Haunted Housewife

Theresa Argie, The Haunted Housewife, will join us at 7 pm, Friday, August 16 in the Phil Walsh Cabaret Room to discuss her most recent book and ghost hunting experiences in the Cleveland area. This is an exciting new event at the Club that you won't want to miss! Admission is $10 at the door.

Theresa Argie's father, Patrick J. Gallagher, emigrated from County Mayo in the 1950s. Theresa and her family grew up immersed in the Irish culture. As a child, she spent years involved with the West Side Irish American Club. She married a wonderful man with strong family roots and a mutual love for Ireland. Today, Theresa and her husband Jay are proud members of the IACES.

Theresa makes her living as an author and public speaker. She often works with Cathi Weber, aka "The Ghost Lady" of Lake County. Besides their work on the Willoughby Ghost Walk, the ladies are heavily involved with various fundraising events and historic preservation projects. Theresa has penned two books; America's Most Haunted (Penguin Random House 2014) and her latest, Love Beyond the Grave: True Tales of Haunted Hearts (Hestia Media 2018). Theresa shares stories from her new book as well as her personal adventures as a ghost hunter and paranormal investigator. Hear about exotic locations and local hotspots with Cleveland's own Haunted Housewife. Love Beyond the Grave is a collection of real people, actual events, and historic characters whose stories revolve around a common theme of love. But love can take many forms and manifest in remarkable ways; sometimes it can be dangerous or even deadly. This powerful emotion can defy logic and transcend physical death. Beyond normal, each story has a paranormal element. The author explores the tragic, traumatic, and sometimes terrifying elements of these famous tales of love. Examples include: An eccentric couple whose love was so strong, neither distance nor death could keep them apart; a rich playboy seduces a naive farm girl, leading to her inevitable fall from grace, tragic death, and restless afterlife; a tenacious mother, fueled by love and unshakeable resolve, helps her murdered daughter find justice from beyond the grave; a deadly love triangle that made headlines, inspired Hollywood, and crushed the soul of "America's Sweetheart"; the dark side of paradise, where one man's morbid obsession turned a beautiful young girl into a gruesome science experiment; a beautiful castle in Ireland, haunted by young lovers caught in the middle of warring clans; and an entire chapter devoted to animals, remarkable creatures who remain loving and loyal long after leaving this mortal coil. These are just a sampling of the stories included in Love Beyond the Grave: True Tales of Haunted Hearts. The people are real, the events historic, and the ghost stories leave even the most skeptical reader scratching their head.

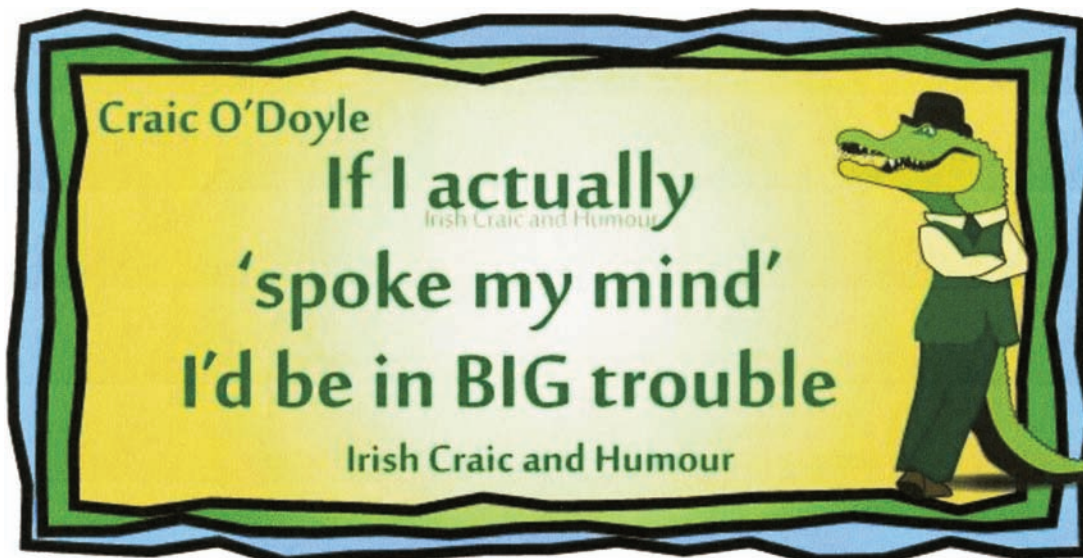

Irish Craic and Humour

An elderly Irishman bought a sports car to recapture his youth and drove at 120mph. Then he saw a police car behind him, blue lights flashing. "I'm too old for this nonsense," he thought so he pulled over. The police officer said, "Sir, my shift ends in 10 minutes. If you can give me good a reason why you were speeding, I'll let you go."

The old man said, "Years ago my wife ran off with a policeman. I thought you were bringing her back."

"That'll do," said the policeman.
