ANDY COONEY CHRISTMAS SHOW

Pat Dowd

What a wonderful response we're having to this Christmas program! Having Andy Cooney and his band at the Club for many of our past anniversary dances was always a fun time and we always filled the dance floor as well as the hall for Andy and his band's extraordinary musical talent.

But this year, on Sunday afternoon, December 15, the Padraic Pearse Center is thrilled to present a very special and uplifting Christmas show with Andy and his "Big Apple Ensemble". Not only will we have this unique holiday show, but we will have the additional attraction of hearing Christopher Macchio, one of the New York Tenors.

The New York Tenors, including Chris and Andy, have sold out Carnegie Hall multiple times, and will, in fact, be performing there the week before our show. Just today, I received calls from several out-of-town people who wanted to know if tickets were still available for our show. They had been to see Andy's show in Warren, and said it was "fantastic", and wanted to hear the music again and bring their friends.

So, if you've put off ordering your tickets, please order now. No tickets will be sold at the door.

This is a dinner show and all tickets must be prepaid by Monday, December 9. The doors will open at 1 pm, dinner at 1:30 pm and show at 3 pm. Cost of the dinner-show is $40 with a cash bar.

What a wonderful way to celebrate the season with family and friends, or perhaps treat someone special to an early present – you won't be disappointed – nor will they!

For reservations and tickets, call Pat Dowd at 440-429-5151 or Mary Jo Gurry at 216-375-5468. Checks should be made payable to the Padraic Pearse Center.

The Andy Cooney Christmas Show is sure to be a highlight of this year's Christmas season. Merry Christmas to all!

THANK YOU

The Padraic Pearse Center wishes to thank all who have supported our various events over the years, and especially this year – the Ladies Luncheon & Raffle, Steak Shoot, book discussions, speakers, and more.

Just recently, Sue Murphy's daughters, Peggy and Colleen, donated Sue's many photo albums of her involvement with the St. Patrick's Day Float from the very beginning of our Club.

This past month, Tom and Maggie Ward donated many Irish books and framed Irish prints to the Padraic Pearse Center and Lonnie McCauley Library. Tom and Maggie were part of our original adult Irish dancers group.

Kay Leonard, another of our former adult Irish dancers with her late husband, George, donated his collection of Irish dance and music CDs, as well as his Irish books.

We are in the midst of reorganizing our library and hope to be back up and running for the New Year. Thanks to all for your generosity.

A special thank you to Margaret Lynch, executive director of the Irish American Archives Society, for her recent presentation of Gangs, Gangsters, and Gambling among the Irish in Cleveland. We didn't know such "antics" would draw a standing room only crowd that night, but they did. Margaret kept us enthralled with her vast knowledge of the colorful characters of that part of Cleveland's past. And thank you to those of you who were part of that night's crowd!

The Padraic Pearse Center, as the cultural and educational arm of the Irish American Club East Side, looks forward to bringing you many more activities and events which characterize our Irish heritage and background. We hope you will continue to enjoy them. Thank you!

Bookbuzz by Bonnie Easton

Three noted authors have published books recently. Akin: A Novel by Irish-born author Emma Donohue (Room, Wonder) is set in France. Noah Selvaggio is a retired chemistry professor and widower who discovers he is the only living relative of his 11 year old great nephew just as he is ready to leave for a visit in Nice. He and the boy set out to discover secrets of Noah's mother and her World War II exploits.

Prize-winning nonfiction author Timothy Egan (The Immortal Irishman) offers A Pilgrimage to Eternity: From Canterbury to Rome in Search of a Faith. Egan grew up in a devout Irish Catholic family of seven. He sets out on a 1,000 mile quest through several historic shrines and cradles of Christianity in his own search for God in order to discover what he believes in this fractured world.

The Secret Guests: A Novel by Benjamin Black (pseudonym for best-selling author John Banville) focuses on two young sisters from London who are sent to live in an Irish castle during the Blitz, just as many English children were sent to the countryside for their safety from German bombs. The townsfolk are left to speculate as to who Ellen and Mary really are when they are accompanied by an English secret agent and a young Irish detective to protect them. Many of the townsfolk lost family in the Irish War of Independence of 1921 and tensions rise when it is suspected that the girls are none other than the royal princesses, Elizabeth and Margaret.

STEAK SHOOT GAMES SIZZLE!

Pat Dowd

Our October Steak Shoot seemed to fly by, especially since the first two games were won in 5 numbers or less by Ed Bopp and Norma Davis! They each won an extra $5. Then Carolyn McFaul and Vic Szokan, Mary McGuire and Carolyn McFaul won games 3 and 4 of the first set.

Set 2 was won by Gabby Pyle, Kathy Dowd, Norma Davis, Theresa Male and Gabby Pyle. Repeat winners Vic Szokan and Ed Bopp shared steaks with Kathy Foster in Set 3.

Returning player Louise Ruffner, Joellen O'Neill, Rita McNeely, Ann Turk and Rose Gentile each happily claimed their Set 4 steaks. Intermission time meant desserts, beverages, Holiday Cash tickets, and monthly cash drawing tickets.

Since it was the 17th day of the month, it was also time for the monthly 317 drawing – and the lucky, well-deserving winner was Joe Capuozzo! Way to go, Joe!!!

Announcement was also made of the upcoming Padraic Pearse presentation by Margaret Lynch titled “Gangs, Gangsters and Gambling among the Irish in Cleveland” on October 23, and the special Andy Cooney Christmas Show on December 15. Get your tickets early!

Then it was back to winning steaks for Louise Ruffner, Barb Bopp, Kathy Dowd and Vickie Rowell in Set 5. The final regular set of the night was won by Sharon Kane, Ann Turk, Norma Davis and Barb Bopp. Barb also won an extra $5 for winning in 5 numbers or less.

Our Bonus rounds were awarded quickly to Carole Price – 2 packages (4 steaks), Gabby Pyle – 2 London broil roasts, and Theresa Male – 1 eye of round roast. To round out the winners for the evening, Evie Adams took home $59 in the October cash drawing.

The final Steak Shoot of the season will be Thursday, Nov. 21 at 7:30 pm, at which time the Holiday Cash drawings will take place. Winners must be present. Please join us for the fun!

Club Bus Trip to New York

Joellen O'Neill

Sunday we stayed overnight at the Woodloch Resort in Hawley, PA. The stay was too short. The next morning we left for the Culinary Institute of America where we had a delicious lunch at the Caterina de Medici. Then we departed for Eleanor Roosevelt's at Val-Kill where we toured the estate.

On Tuesday of our weeklong trip the group went to Hyde Park in the morning to tour FDR's estate and library. After lunch we took a boat tour down the Hudson River from Kingston enjoying lighthouses, waterfront mansions and other notable sights. It was fascinating to travel on a river that flows in two directions according to the Indians. It was beautiful.

At dinner time we ate at Shadows on the Hudson Restaurant and had a lovely view of the Hudson. This is where I took the pictures of our group.

If you'd like more information about the trip, I'm sure one of the travelers would enjoy sharing their experience.
