STEAK SHOOT SIZZLES AGAIN!

Pat Dowd

The July Steak Shoot gave us loads of multiple winners who were anxious to get those grills fired up again. Starting off the night was someone who said he hadn't won in more than a year, Vic Szokan. So Vic started his winning streak in game 1 of the first set, followed by Stephen Pyle, Ann Turk, and Amy Bopp.

The second set was claimed by Linda Walsh, Sharon Kane, Helen Vura, Barb Bopp, Sharon Kane, and Linda Walsh. Set 3 made winners of Darlene Safranski, Marilou Donovan, Joyce Kucera, Vic Szokan, and Ann Turk.

Moving right along in Set 4 were Rosemarie Gentile, Marilou Donovan, Carolyn McFaul, Rosemarie Gentile, and Linda Walsh. Already we had had loads of multiple winners by halftime.

After a short break for refreshments and cash drawing tickets, it was back to the games. Set 5 was won by Helen Vura, Vic Szokan, Red Turkett, and Marilou Donovan. The Bopps must have been planning another family get-together for Ed, Amy, Marilou Donovan, and Amy Bopp took Set 6.

There were so many multiple winners this night that we only had two packages to award in the first bonus round and they were won by Yvonne Paulin and Rita McNeely. The Grand Bonus of a large slab of baby back ribs was won by Joy McBrien. The cash prize of $37 was won by Mr. Bob Fitzgerald, Sr. Way to go, Mr. Fitz!

Our next Steak Shoot is Thursday, September 20 at 7:30 pm. Come on down and bring a friend or neighbor. It could be you with all those multiple steaks!

The Devoted: A Novel by Blair Hurley tells of Nicole Hennessey growing up in an Irish Catholic family in Boston, but she flees to New York City to escape her overzealous mother. She works as a shop girl and begins to take lessons in Buddhism. In her studies, she enters into a relationship with a charismatic Buddhist teacher who entangles her in his web and manipulates her to his will.

Quinn Boyle is a lobsterman who served time in prison for cocaine possession and cannot pay his child support. The only man who will work with him on his boat is his old nemesis, Freddy Santoro, but they both disappear three days out to sea. Quinn's brother, Robbie, becomes a father-figure to his niece and is determined to find out what happened to his younger brother after Santoro is seen living in the Pacific Northwest in Follow the Sun by Edward J. Delaney.

John MacKay arrived in America as a penniless Irish immigrant. Gregory Crouch tells his story in the new biography, The Bonanza King: John MacKay and the Battle over the Greatest Riches in the American West. In the late 1800s, MacKay took control of a rich vein of gold and silver in Nevada and extracted the minerals 1,500 feet beneath the ground. He used his great wealth to crush the transatlantic telegraph monopoly.

Happy Reading!

Padraic Pearse Book Discussion

The Padraic Pearse Book Discussion will meet at 7:15 pm, Friday, September 21 in the boardroom to discuss Jackie's Girl: My Life with the Kennedy Family by Kathy McKeon. Kathy was only 19 years old when she arrived in New York City from Ireland in 1964 and became Jacqueline Kennedy's personal assistant and helped care for young Caroline and John. Jackie mentored her like a big sister. Kathy was there when Jackie dated and married Aristotle Onassis, but Kathy is also telling her own story about finding her way as an immigrant alone in a new country with the help of one of the most famous women in the world to guide her.

Future book discussion:

November 16: Carnegie's Maid by Marie Benedict

Famine Memorial Mass

Pat Dowd

The 19th Annual Famine Memorial Mass will be celebrated at 5 pm, Saturday, September 15 at the Famine Memorial site in the Flats.

Every year, since the dedication in 2000, hundreds come to the site to remember and honor those who fled the famine and left Ireland to seek a better life in America. Sadly, the “coffin ships” prevented many from reaching our shores. Many of our ancestors were among those brave people – some perished, and others were able to make their way here.

“Lest we forget” – this Mass is our way of remembering the sacrifices that were made by so many Irish men, women, and children. Also, at this Mass, let us continue to pray in a special way for the continued healing of Fr. Jim O’Donnell, who has been our celebrant since the dedication. Our Offertory collection at the Famine Mass is for Fr. Jim’s ministry, the Little Brothers & Sisters of the Eucharist. Thank you for your generosity.

A special thank-you to Phillip Parente for providing folding chairs for us each year, so that you don’t have to bring your own. We look forward to a beautiful late afternoon on the river as we remember those who came before us.

Please join us at this beautiful site on the Cuyahoga River, across from The Flat Iron, as we come together for this Memorial Mass. Afterwards, stop in for a bite to eat at one of the oldest Irish establishments in the Flats.

Irish Heritage Tour

Pat Dowd

NOTE: As of August 2, Trolley #1 is sold out for the Padraic Pearse Center’s Irish Heritage Tour on Saturday, October 13. If you would like to join this tour, we have one more trolley available on a first come, first served basis.

Lolly the Trolley will pick us up at the Club at 10 am and return to the Club by 4 pm. Our narrated tour will include stops at St. Aloysius Church with Pastor Fr. Mark Hobson, a stroll in the beautiful Irish Cultural Garden, and a visit to Immaculate Conception Church in Cleveland – affectionately known as “The Mac”, where Fr. Frank Godic is pastor. Midway through our tour, we’ll stop for lunch at one of the oldest Irish establishments in Cleveland – the Flat Iron.

After lunch, we’ll make our way across the street to the Irish Famine Memorial on the bank of the Cuyahoga River.

As Lolly winds her way back to the Club, we’ll hear more about various points of interest such as St. Malachi’s, The Flats, Irish Town Bend, St. Mary’s on the Flats, the Soldiers & Sailors Monument and more.

All of our previously sponsored Irish Heritage Tours have promptly sold out! We anticipate the same will be true this time, so don’t wait to make your reservation. We are limited to 38 passengers per trolley, and we have two trolleys reserved, so reservations will be on a first come, first served basis.

Plan now to join us for an enjoyable day as we travel to sites that hold so much history and so many memories. Bring a relative or friend as we journey down memory lane – and leave the driving to Lolly!

Cost for the tour is $45, which includes roundtrip trolley transportation, driver gratuity, donations to St. Aloysius and Immaculate Conception churches, lunch at the Flat Iron, tax and luncheon gratuity.

FOR RESERVATIONS: Send your check, made payable to:

Padraic Pearse Center
Attn: Irish Heritage Tour
22770 Lake Shore Blvd.
Euclid, OH 44123

NOTE: If you are reserving for more than one person, be sure to include everyone’s name.

We’ve Got A Fun Night Out For You!

Pat Dowd

Fall is a great time of the year, and this year we’re going to make it even more enjoyable for you with our “country-themed” fun night out. The Padraic Pearse Center committee has been having a great time planning this night, so we hope you’ll come and join in the fun!

The date is Saturday, October 20. Doors open at 6:30 pm with a beer and wine bar, a delicious hot country dinner at 7:30 pm, and drawings at 8:30 pm. This year there will only be $2, $3 and $5 sideboards for you to pick your favorite winning numbers (no main board). And we have some very special raffles, too. In addition, we have something different planned for you right after the raffle! You’ll be able to be a spectator, or join in, whichever you choose.

Get your group together right now and order your tickets before we are sold out. Feel free to dress country-casual if you’d like – jeans, skirts, checkered shirts or tops, boots, bandanas, even a 10-gallon hat is fine. But in any case, just come, whether alone or with a group, and enjoy the night. This is our first time hosting this particular type of event, so we hope you’ll like it.

Tickets are $25 each and include a beer and wine bar, a country dinner by Koumbaros, and more.

For reservations, call Pat Dowd 440-429-5151 or see any Padraic Pearse Center committee member: Peggy Bennett, Amy Bopp, Maggie Gurry, Bree Gurry, Kevin McCluskey, Pam Splittorf, Dianne Probst, Eileen Garin, Bonnie Easton, Thomasine Barner Martha Chrosniak, and our ever-faithful ticket seller, Dolly Lusk.

Your winning numbers are waiting for you - get your tickets now!

Club Picnic

Kathy Foster

The Club picnic was held July 15 at Sims Park in Euclid. It was fun, in spite of the heat. A wonderful breeze kept us cool and comfortable as Fr. Betters celebrated Mass in the pavilion overlooking the calm water of Lake Eire, and Georgann Hoag led the hymns.

After Mass, Kevin McCluskey was grill master extraordinaire. There were hot dogs, hamburgers and a variety of delicious treats. We enjoyed the always-entertaining Brendan Cosgriff as he sang and played guitar; we tapped our toes to button box music by Tony Perko, and had a special musical guest appearance from Marcus Dirk. A lively game of cornhole was played in the shade of the trees while music filled the air. Reilly Arth showed off her artistic talent by face painting children and adults.

Here is a great big THANK YOU to all that helped make the day run smooth, so fun could be had by all. Fr. Betters, Georgann Hoag, Pat Homan, Mary Alice and Tom Curran, Peggy Bennett, Kevin McCluskey, Rick Eberhard, Mary Joyce, Helen Vura, Robin Burton, Bob and Sharon Spinks, Sarah and Marcus Dirk, Amy Logan, Brendan Cosgriff, Tony Perko, Casey Hatcher, Colin and Josh Hatcher, Reilly Arth, Tom Faith, and Chris Faith, Pam Curiale and especially to the AOH for their donation!
