

Mary Campbell Stack 2019 Member of the Year

Monday, January 14, the Executive Board announced to the membership their choice for Member of the Year 2019, Mary Campbell Stack. Mary has often been a behind the scenes volunteer for the Irish American Club East Side, Inc.

Though still in high school when the IACES was formed, Mary quickly joined in the activities of the new club her father helped found. She enjoyed club dances, dinners, and shows with her family and friends, and even participated in the Rose of Tralee once. Never one to sit idle while others do all the work, Mary became a club volunteer.

Always willing to lend a hand and share her talents, Mary served the club in both official and unofficial roles. Officially, she served five terms as club Treasurer and one term as Member-at-Large. Unofficially, Mary has volunteered in numerous roles. She has assisted other Treasurers by preparing and counting money pouches, preparing and verifying deposits, entering data into the computer, assisting with reconciliations, preparing reports, researching information and completing documentation, and helping with various office duties. Mary also served on the St. Patrick's Day Raffle Committee.

She has also helped the club by preparing forms for obtaining liquor permits, assisted at reverse raffles, and served on nominating and election committees. Whether the job at hand is complex and demanding, or seemingly simple, Mary diligently and thoroughly completes each task she undertakes.

In the greater Irish-American community, Mary is a familiar face, helping marshal the St. Patrick's Day parade with the United Irish Societies, volunteering as a tabulator for the Greater Cleveland Feis Society, and volunteering for the Irish Summerfest/Ohio Celtic Festival. She is also a member of Irish Northern Aid and the West Side Irish American Club.

Her volunteerism extends beyond the Irish community, as she serves on the Board of Directors for the Ohio First Class Credit Union, is active in her Democratic Ward Committee, and volunteers for the Letter Carrier food drive. Mary was a union steward who devoted much of her personal time to assist coworkers.

Family is very important to Mary. She is one of ten children along with siblings, Kathleen Cooper, John, Kevin, Jimmy, Ann Campbell-Dunham, Noreen Halley, Patty, Sheila Kropf and Brigid. Mary was well prepared for her role as an enthusiastic and dedicated volunteer. Her parents, John and Patricia Campbell, demonstrated by example and Mary seamlessly attached to their efforts. She continues to share her time and talents and often recruits her husband Dave, her nine siblings, her cousins, extended family, and friends to join in her volunteer activities. One might say she is an all-inclusive volunteer recruiter!

Mary graduated from Villa Angela Academy and received her Bachelor's Degree in Economics from Cleveland State University. She worked at Made-Rite Auto Body Products, State Chemical, and has been a proud USPS letter carrier for almost 25 years.

Mary and her husband, David Stack, are enthusiastic lifelong Cleveland residents and attend mass at St. Colman and St. Vincent de Paul.

We congratulate Mary as our 2019 Member of the Year and we thank you, Mary, for all of your hard work and dedication to the Irish American Club East, Inc. Rest up so you can enjoy the next few months celebrating with your family and friends.

Let's spotlight some recent Irish history books this month.

Lincoln and the Irish: The Untold Story of How the Irish Helped Abraham Lincoln Save the Union by Irish American journalist Niall O'Dowd is a series of brief sketches of several men and women who aided the United States during the Civil War. At a time when Irish immigrants were perceived to be of a lower status than even slaves, they distinguished themselves on the battlefield and provided some of his top generals.

Dagger John: Archbishop John Hughes and the Making of Irish America by John Loughery is a biography of an Irish immigrant who founded St. John's College (now Fordham University), built St. Patrick's Cathedral in New York City, pioneered parochial education, and practiced diplomacy. He fought the bigotry aimed at the Irish to help them find acceptance in the United States after enduring the famine and troubles in Ireland.

The King and the Catholics: England, Ireland and the fight for Religious Freedom, 1780-1829 by acclaimed author Lady Antonia Fraser tracks the history of religious prejudice in England and Ireland from the Gordon Riots of 1780 where 285 people were killed to the joint work of Irish Catholic Daniel O'Connell and the English Duke of Wellington to pass the Roman Catholic Relief Act fifty years later.

PADRAIC PEARSE BOOK DISCUSSION

Join us in the Board Room on Friday, February 15 at 7:15 pm for our monthly book discussion. The book we will be discussing this month, The Girl in the Castle: A Novel by Santa Monefiore, is the first volume in a trilogy. The story takes place in West Cork during the upheaval of the early 1900s. Kitty lives in Castle Deverill with her Anglo-Irish family. Her two friends are Bridie Doyle, the Catholic daughter of the family's cook and Jack O'Leary, the vet's son. Jack and Kitty fall in love. The Irish revolt finds the three friends on the side of the rebels to fight British rule, but their bond will be tested when Castle Deverill is attacked.

2019 Schedule of upcoming discussions:

Kevin McGinty Obituary

Kevin McGinty, age 78, passed away unexpectedly September 15th, 2018. Kevin lived in Euclid, Ohio, a native of Castlebar, County Mayo, Ireland. Beloved husband of the late Kathleen (nee Hastings); loving father of Kevin (Sue), Jean Humphrey (Bob), Christine Susnik (John), Captain Megan McGinty PhD., and Patrick (Jaime). The proud grandfather of Caitlan, Devon, Elizabeth, Jonathan, Diana, Christine, Kevin, Angelina, Kathleen, Daniel, James and Ronan; great grandfather of Ridley Rose, brother of Kitty, Muriel Ainsworth, Jean Foy, Desmond, Gerry and the late Patrick, Mary Ennis and Monica (all of Ireland).

Kevin was known as a talented leadership figure throughout the Irish American community in Cleveland. He was a founding member of the Irish American Club-East Side of Cleveland, as well as the Mayo Society of Greater Cleveland. As a young man, Kevin was also known locally as an athlete participating in Gaelic (Irish) football for St. Patrick's in Cleveland. However, it was later in life he became known internationally as Director of the Cleveland Irish Players, producing over 50 plays with local actors in the Cleveland and Pittsburgh areas, as well as Ireland. He was also given a theatre honor by the Irish Society of Pittsburgh.

Kevin was also a lifetime member of the Pioneer Total Abstinence Society, and was honored by them in 2013, as well as being the Grand Marshall of the Cleveland St. Patrick's Day Parade in that same year. Kevin was also known as the radio voice and co-host of the program "Sounds of Britain and Ireland," a Time Warner Broadcast, for over six years.

After immigrating in 1960, Kevin served in the Ohio Nat'l Guard for eight years and became a valued employee of Meisner Inc. for construction projects. However, his passion for Ireland never faltered. Among his many hours as a volunteer, he was also a founding member of the Irish American Archives Society of the Western Reserve Historical Society, serving as Treasurer. He also found time to be an advocate of the MacBride Principles of Fair Employment—a fair hiring agenda for North American Corporations intended to curb discriminating hiring practices in Northern Ireland. His advocacy included testifying before committees of the Ohio General Assembly in the 1990s.

He was also the Editor on the Ohio Irish Times for 20 years in the 1990s through 2011. The publication was brought forward after the death of his dear friend Jim McCoy who was the Publisher of Ohio Irish Bulletin. Both were a local source of information about Irish Culture and the Civil Rights movement in Ireland, athletics, music and dance.

Kevin was sometimes compared by fellow advocates as a devoted and trusting friend, epitomizing Rudyard Kipling's famed composition entitled "The Thousandth Man." That is, the person you can trust to always have your back, and whose loyalty endures "to stand by your side...to the gallows foot, and after."

Safe home, Kevin.
