Book Buzz

Bonnie Easton

There are a lot of books to talk about this month.

What Happened to the McCrays? A Novel by Tracey Lange (We Are the Brennans and The Connellys of County Down) tells us about high school sweethearts Kyle and Casey McCray of Potsdam, New York, who marry too young and drift apart. She works as a middle school teacher and he as a hockey coach. After the divorce, Kyle leaves town for two-and-a-half years and returns when his father suffers a stroke, but he quickly learns that Casey wants him gone as soon as possible. They must face the pain of their past and come to terms with it.

Belfast-born author Cathy Kelly offers her newest book, Sisterhood. Louise Fielding is celebrating her 50th birthday when her mother decides to reveal a family secret that throws her life into chaos. Her sister Toni wants to help, but her marriage to actor husband Ned is in crisis. What do sisters do in a situation like this? They fly to Sicily, of course, and bring a friend who also has her own problems to solve. They all need a break.

Frankie, a book by Irish talk show host, Graham Norton, introduces us to an 84-year-old woman from a small village in Ireland. When she breaks her ankle and needs a caretaker, Damian is hired, and he listens to the story of her life. The chapters of the book flash back and forth from the past to the present, taking us on a ride through London in the 60s to New York in the 70s and 80s and the AIDS epidemic. After losing both of her parents at a young age and an involuntary first marriage to a strict, middle-aged clergyman when she is just 18, she discovers her love for cooking and works as a chef. She always seems to land on her feet, and, even with all her trials and heartbreak, she finds friends and happiness in her life.

Bright I Burn: A Novel by Molly Aitken is set in 13th century Ireland. It tells the story of Alice Kyteler, the first Irish woman to be condemned of witchcraft. Her father is an innkeeper and lender in the community. After his death, she is accused of being a witch. Alice is a self-made, opinionated banker who buries four husbands. The townsfolk spread rumors about her. She is a woman who has too much power, pride, and ambition for her own good.

Furious Devotion: The life of Shane MacGowan by Richard Balls is a biography of the iconic singer who died November 30, 2023. Born in England, he spent time in his mother's home in Tipperary. He rose to fame as the lead singer of the punk band, the Pogues, with songs like Fairytale of New York and Rainy Night in Soho. Balls includes interviews with MacGowan shortly before his death as well as conversations with his wife, his friends, and fans of the band.

Find Your Irish Ancestors Online: A Quick Reference Handbook to Genealogy Websites for Ireland by R. L. Weston is a newly released guide for family genealogists. It offers a list of hundreds of websites, most free to use, to help in your research. Included are county-specific sources for births, marriages, deaths, burial records, wills, military records, education, newspapers, emigration, and more.

Some oldies but goodies: The Wild Irish by Robin Maxwell, Sister Fidelma Mysteries by Peter Tremayne, Anyone Out There by Marian Keyes, and The Connellys of County Down by Tracy Lange.

Check out www.padraicpearsecenter.weebly.com for upcoming Padraic Pearse events, reading suggestions, online genealogy resources, and more.
