Bookbuzz

Bonnie Easton

Some of this month's suggestions are destined to be on the bestsellers' lists.

If you are one of the legions of Dirk Pitt fans, you will be rewarded by Celtic Empire by Clive Cussler and his son Dirk, the 25th installment in the popular series. A number of sea disasters involves a biotech company and a cholera-like disease. The incurable disease stems from ancient Egypt and is spreading. The only cure seems to be an ancient one that was carried by an Egyptian princess to Ireland.

Another book creating a lot of buzz is Say Nothing: A True Story of Murder and Memory in Northern Ireland by Patrick Radden Keefe. A widowed mother of 10, Jean McConville, was snatched by an IRA gang in 1972. The author makes his case that Gerry Adams, a leader of Sinn Féin, ordered her murder because she was an informant to the British.

When All Is Said: A Novel is the debut offering of Irish author Anne Griffin. Eighty-four-year-old Maurice Hannigan orders five drinks at the local hotel bar in County Meath. He lines them up to toast each of five family members who influenced his life: his older brother, his unstable sister-in-law, his stillborn daughter, his son in America, and the wife he misses terribly. Intertwined with his toasts is the story of his life. One of the characters is a commemorative coin with the face of King Edward VIII that he stole from an employer who bullied him.

One last selection is an Irish history book written for teens, The Partition of Ireland by Cathleen Small, to answer the question of how Ireland became divided. It includes photographs, maps, and sidebars to trace the history of the conflict. It may also be a great read for adults who need a quick and easy read to understand the times.

Happy Reading! For more reading suggestions, check out padraicpearsecenter.weebly.com.

"STEAK SHOOT" UPDATE

Pat Dowd

We'll have a recap for you of our first night of Season 11 next month, since at press time we had not started the new season. Be sure to join us on the third Thursday of the month at 7:30 pm. Our next sessions are May 16 and June 20. See you then – come and bring a friend to this fun night!

"LADIES ONLY" LUNCHEON & RAFFLE

We'll fill you in on this gala affair in the next issue since this event, too, is being held after the Schanachie goes to press. But if you have a ticket you'll know all about the excitement before we publish and you may even be a big winner!

PADRAIC PEARSE BOOK DISCUSSION

On Friday, May 17, at 7:15 pm, our book group will discuss Eleanor Oliphant Is Completely Fine by Gail Honeyman. We're exploring a non-Irish selection to talk about this bestseller of an ordinary young woman with a routine, solitary life. She meets Raymond from IT at her job. Together, they save an elderly man named Sammy who fell on the sidewalk. The three of them become fast friends and discovers a life outside of her apartment. Eleanor learns a lesson: living means opening your heart.

Next month, June 21, we will gather to discuss The Ruin by Dervla MacTiernan

Recognition from Ss. Robert and William Parish

On April 6, 2019 the Board of the IACES was invited to attend the Ss. Robert & William's Spring Fling. At the event, Fr. Betters presented the board with a plaque to recognize the Irish American Club East Side for our dedication to the City of Euclid. We thank Ss. Robert & William Parish for this honor and for a wonderful night. We sure do cherish our partnership.

IACES Executive Board & Members

I would like to thank the Executive Board for choosing me to be the 2019 Member of the Year. I know there are many deserving candidates to choose from, so I was thrilled to be selected. It truly is an honor. I have enjoyed attending a lot of events during the St. Patrick's Day season especially the St. Patrick's Day Mass and of course riding in the car for the parade. The reserved parking spot is also a nice perk.

I would like to thank all the members who expressed congratulatory messages to me, sent me cards or gave me gifts. I want to thank Plant Magic Florist for the beautiful flowers, Sally – the convertible driver, my family members for putting up with me and Linda Walsh for all her help. Lastly, I want to thank our true "Madam President" for everything she does for our great club and always with a smile on her face. I will be enjoying the next nine months as Member of the Year until the next well deserved member is picked.

Thanks and May God bless everyone,

Mary Campbell-Stack,

2019 IACES Member of the Year

Save the Date for our Club Picnic

The picnic is scheduled for Sunday, July 14, 2019 from 11 am – 4 pm at Sims Park, 23131 Lakeshore Blvd in Euclid. The day will begin with Mass at 11 am under the pavilion. The grill will be ready for you to cook your food, and we'll have hamburgers, hot dogs and chips for sale at family friend prices. Beer and wine will be available inside the designated area. We'll have games for children and adults. Bring your lawn chairs, picnic blanket, picnic basket and a change of clothes for the kids (there may be an egg toss and a water balloon toss). We are finalizing plans for music. Maybe by July the lake will be warm enough to enjoy a walk along the beach – at your own risk of course.
