Bruce Greig

Nominations for club officers and members at large, the Executive Board, will be May 12 at the General Membership meeting. The officers to be elected are President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Membership Secretary for one-year terms. In addition, there are two Member at Large two-year open positions.

Any member in good standing, who has paid their dues and attended five meetings in the past 12 months, is eligible to run for office. Any member in good standing who has paid their dues and attended three meetings in the past 12 months is eligible to nominate and vote for candidates for the above offices. Nominating members must show their current membership card and will have two minutes to nominate their candidate. Nominating members should come forward and check in with the election committee. Nominated members must show their current membership card and will have one minute to accept their nomination.

The election will be held on June 9 at the General Membership meeting. Members in good standing must show a current membership card to receive a ballot. Absentee ballots will be available and issued when requested in writing from members in good standing. Write in ballots will be accepted. Write in candidates must also be members in good standing, having paid dues and attended five meetings over the past year.

The votes will be counted and verified on June 9 at the General Membership meeting. Good luck to all seeking these important positions.

From the President

What a green season we had! I cannot thank you all enough for your support of our events and our St. Patrick's Day Raffle. We certainly had something for everyone beginning with our Kickoff and ending with the Screaming Orphans Concert on March 22. Our St. Patrick's Day Mass with Bishop Malesic presiding was a beautiful start to our special day. And special thanks to Father John Betters for welcoming us all into Ss. Roberts and William.

Our Club units shone brightly at the parade which however chilly, the sun came out and it proved to be a wonderful day for the Irish. Thanks to Peggy McDonough Voll, Addison Hart, Michaela Pingstock, Bruce Greig, Bella Behm, Josie Holody and all our Flag Corp for the wonderful job you all did as leaders of our units. Special thanks to Erin Waite and Kelly Pingstock for organizing us all at Mass and then down at the parade, not an easy task. And then there is our float! WOW so exciting that they placed first and no surprise, thank you to Wes Feathers, Bob Henry and all those great people who contributed to the beautiful float that people from all around greater Cleveland are still talking about.

To say I was and continue to be proud to be President of this great organization is an understatement. Let us continue to grow, build up our units and remain proud of our heritage. Thank you again for making your Club shine brightly!

All the Best,
Linda Walsh

Book Buzz

Bonnie Easton

Thanks to all those who attended Karen Varunch's fantastic performance as the pirate Grace O'Malley on March 30. Karen referenced author Anne Chambers as her major source for researching her character. Chambers' latest book on Grace O'Malley is Grace O'Malley: The Biography of Ireland's Pirate Queen 1530-1603, released in 2019. The description of the book reads: "Political pragmatist and tactician, rebel, intrepid mariner and pirate, wife, lover, mother, grandmother and matriarch, the most notorious woman in all the coasts of Ireland, Grace O'Malley challenged and triumphed over the social and political barriers she encountered in the course of her long, pioneering life."

There are several books by well-known authors to tell you about this month.

The Paris Express: A Novel by Emma Donoghue (Room) takes place on a train to Paris in 1895. Based on a true story, the book introduces an array of international passengers who all have interesting backstories, but the train is hurtling down the tracks to derailment because of the actions of a terrorist on board. Three members of Parliament are riding in first class while anarchist Mado Pelletier plans an assassination with the bomb she is carrying.

Children of Eve by John Connolly is the 22nd book in the author's Charlie Parker series. The boyfriend of a prominent artist in Maine goes missing and private investigator Charlie Parker is called in to help. Why did Wyatt Riggins flee and to whom? Parker discovers that Riggins is an ex-soldier involved in the kidnapping of four children believed to belong to a cartel boss in Mexico, but his children are alive and well. Doesn't matter—the cartel boss still wants them found and will kill anyone who gets in his way. Charlie must find Eve's children and the truth.

Twist: A Novel by Colum McCann (Transatlantic) introduces us to the world of underwater communication cables. A world-weary, hard-drinking, middle-aged journalist, Anthony Fennell, flies to Cape Town to board a cable repair ship and hopes this writing assignment will jumpstart his floundering career. He meets fellow Irishman John Conway who has a black South African girlfriend, Zanele Ombassa, an actress now rehearsing a play in London. The cables lie on the ocean floor, sometimes too deep for divers to reach, which leaves the crew to rely on a grappling hook. Speculation is that Russia and its allies caused the damage to the cables. In London, Zanele is injured in an attack, but Conway is left to worry about her from the ship that he cannot leave in the middle of the job. Both men are dealing with life at sea and a plot twist neither saw coming.

Nesting by Roisin O'Donnell is the author's first novel after several short story collections. In Dublin, a pregnant mother of two toddlers is married to a man who presents himself to the world as handsome, loyal, and a good provider, but to his family, he is controlling, domineering, and threatening. Ciara flees to England with her young daughters where she finally finds a room in a homeless shelter named Hotel Eden. Before her marriage, Ciara had traveled extensively as an English language teacher and now finds part-time work in a school for non-English speakers, but Ryan continues to try to lure her back and drags her to court hearings as she struggles through a difficult pregnancy. Still, Ciara is building a new life with the help and support of her new friends and is finding the courage to move on.

Based on a true story, Women on Platform Two by Laura Anthony puts a human face on the women's rights movement for reproductive freedom in Ireland in the 1970s. In 2023, Saoirse has a fight with her boyfriend about whether to have a child. She leaves the house to board a train for Belfast and has an intense conversation with a stranger, Maura Flynn, who tells her about another train trip she once took with her friend Bernie in 1971. Both women feared getting pregnant—Maura because she was in a violent marriage and Bernie because she already had three children and was warned that she could die were she to get pregnant again. Contraception was illegal. They found solace in each other's company and in the company of other women in similar circumstances. After Maura's story, Saoirse realizes she can make up her own mind about whether to have a child because of the women who came before her.

The Irish Times recently published a list of the Best Irish Books of the 21st century. We'll start from #100 and work our way back to #1: Oh My God, What a Complete Aisling by Emer McLysaght, Service by Sarah Gilmartin, Big Girl, Small Town by Michelle Gullen, The Hostel Life by Melatu Uche Okorie, and Snowflake by Louise Nealon.
