President's Message

Happy Fall, everyone. I hope you are enjoying the cooler weather and the beautiful autumn colors we are lucky to experience here in the Cleveland area.

We are extremely excited about bringing back the Golden Shamrocks. This group spent many wonderful years gathering, and we are thrilled to see it in return. We look forward to the first meeting on November 18—please see the article in this Schanachie for all the details.

We also have many events coming up over the next couple of months, and we hope to see you here at the club to support them. It truly takes a village to keep things running and to make every event a success.

See you at the Club,
 Mary Alice

The Golden Shamrocks Are Back!

We're excited to announce the return of the Golden Shamrocks, a social group created for adults 55 and older who enjoy friendship, conversation, and fun activities within our Club.

Our first meeting will be held on Wednesday, November 18, from 1–3 PM in the Main Hall. This gathering will be a chance to reconnect, welcome new members, and begin planning what the upcoming year will look like.

The Golden Shamrocks will meet once a month to enjoy each other's company and organize activities that interest the group—such as guest speakers, themed events, educational sessions, and local outings. Whether you're looking to socialize, learn something new, or help shape future programs, your presence and ideas are truly valued.

We warmly invite you to join us as we kick off this new chapter of the Golden Shamrocks.

Donate Candy for Children's Halloween Party

Our Children's Halloween Party is October 24, and we want to make it sweet and memorable. Please consider donating candy for the kids—every treat helps!

You can place donations in the container outside the Pub or bring them to the October membership meeting.

Thanks for being frightfully generous!

Book Buzz

Bonnie Easton

Several bestselling authors have published new books recently. I Hope you find something here that interest you.

The Pirate Queen: A Novel by Arizel Lawhon (Frozen River) is a historical fiction account of the legendary Grace O'Malley (1530-1603). The daughter of an Irish chieftain, she led her crew of two hundred men on adventures on the high seas and negotiated with Queen Elizabeth I herself.

William Kent Krueger (Ordinary Grace) has released the 22nd entry of his highly acclaimed Cork O'Connor mystery series, God's Country, set in Minnesota among the Ojibwe Indian tribe. He retired from his job as sheriff of Aurora, MN, and now works for himself as a private investigator. His latest case is searching for a missing friend against some dangerous criminals, the Kennedy brothers, who are trying to find their late father's hidden stash. He is forced to take justice into his own hands.

Rhys Bowen and her daughter Clare Broyles have also released their 22nd entry in their series, Molly Murphy mysteries. Vanished in the Crowd: A Molly Murphy Mystery is set in New York City in 1909, and Molly has retired from her job on the police force to be a full-time mother. When their friends ask her for help in finding someone using her detective skills, she jumps at the chance to make a little extra money to ease their financial worries. Her husband, Daniel, a police captain, asks her to spy on their friends, testing her loyalties. She must find the truth.

Whale Harbor by Mary Beth Keane (Ask Again, Yes) tells a story of a father with eleven sons growing into manhood in the 1960s and dealing with a family tragedy. They are each deciding what path their lives will take. The older boys are looking towards Ireland, England, Montana, and New York while the younger boys are staying closer to home. The second oldest goes missing, causing his father and his brothers grief and tears over several decades.

In Road Trip, Mary Kay Andrews (Summers at the Saint) tells us of two sisters, Maeve and Therese Dunigan, who have been estranged for many years. Maeve is the rule follower and Therese the rebel, but they must unite when their mother dies. She has left them a valuable painting, and they have to find the original by traveling to Ireland together. Along the way, they encounter charming villages and handsome men. There is also a curse accompanying the painting. Can they travel together, find the painting, and restrain themselves from killing each other?

Murder at an Irish Session by Carlene O'Connor (Irish Village mystery series) sounds like fun for trad music fans. Bistro owner Siobhan O'Sullivan is pregnant with her first child with husband Macdara Flannery in her village of Kilbane in County Cork. Her brother, Ciaran, expresses his despair that he will ever find a girl to fall in love with, so Siobhan proposes a music and matchmaking festival in their town. They hire Liam Noone as the matchmaker, but after the town has a blackout and the lights come back on, the townspeople discover Liam dead with an arrow through his heart. An unsatisfied customer, perhaps? Or one of the trad musicians? Siobhan must keep the festival going and solve a murder at the same time.

Irish Times list of Best Books of the 21st century countdown 30-26: Fallen by Lia Mills, Snowflake by Louise Nealon, This Hostel Life by Melatu Uche Okorle, Service by Sarah Gilmartin, Oh My God, What a Complete Aisling by Emer McLysaght.

Happy Reading!
