Congratulations to Our 2018 Member of the Year Linnea Meaney by Linda Walsh

On Monday, February 12, 2018 the Executive Board was happy to make the announcement with our choice for the 2018 Member of the Year. Linnea Meaney was our choice for 2018 and let us share her story with you.

Linnea who is of Swedish and Irish descent was born in Cleveland Heights to Gunhild & Henry Rupp on July 21. She and her sister Gunny grew up in Cleveland Heights where Linnea attended Heights High. Linnea married the late Jim Meaney on June 7, 1958 at St. Louis Church on Taylor Road in Cleveland Heights, living in Cleveland and then moving to Euclid where they raised their six children, Dennis, Shireen, Tami, Kevin, Eileen and Gunny. She has 18 grandchildren and three great grandchildren. She is a member of Our Lady of the Lake Parish in Euclid. Linnea worked for Hough Bakery and was the Manager of the Gwen Estate in University Circle for over 20 years.

Linnea has many outside activities that have kept her busy through the years. She loved ice skating, playing the accordion, cross country skiing and it's been said that when encouraged you may see her do the occasional "splits". She enjoys yoga, staying in shape, dancing, golfing and traveling, having been to Ireland four times. Linnea also biked her way across the Golden Gate Bridge. Her family says that everyone loves her roast beef, she can make it like no other along with her rum cake and famous chocolate chip cookies that her grand and great grandchildren love. Linnea also has an extended family in the Carney Family with whom she and Bill Carney (who also served as the best man in Linnea's and Jim's wedding) have brought together.

Linnea is one of our members who is a behind the scenes worker. She is currently a member of our Ladies Drill Team. Always there to help wherever needed, Linnea is one of our great volunteers. She contacts volunteers for the After Funeral Committee, has been an active committee member for our Anniversary Dance, fish fries and many other events. She is always willing to help when it comes to cleaning and has even been spotted inside one of our refrigerators in the kitchen scrubbing it out, and we mean really inside. She has also traveled on many of the bus trips that the club has sponsored.

We are proud to say that Linnea Meaney is a great asset to the Irish American Club East Side and we wish Linnea and her family the very best while celebrating this wonderful honor. As her daughter Shireen says she is like the Energizer bunny. Well Linnea, stay charged up and enjoy this time and honor. Thank you for all that you have done and continue to do for us. You are one of a kind and we love you!

Joe Schindly Chili Bowl Results

On Saturday, January 13, 14 chilis made it to the Walsh Room and the judge's table for our First Annual Joe Schindly Chili Bowl Cook-Off. Sixty or so members and guests made quick work of some great tasting chili soon after the judging was completed!

Judges included IACES president Kevin McCluskey, past president Bruce Greig and Joe Schindly's son, Glen Schindly! Thank you, judges, tough calls had to be made and you did a great job!

Our winners were:

Traditional Chili: John Wachter

Non-Traditional: Rhonda Henry

Original: Bruce McGill

Our first winner of the Schindly Chili Bowl and the first to get his name on the trophy is Bruce McGill for Best Overall Winner!

Congratulations to Bruce and to all the winners! A fun night was had by all and everyone enjoyed a night of great Celtic music from the band Plaid Sabbath!

Mark April 28, 2018 on your calendars for our next culinary event, the Soup Spoon Soup Challenge!

Bob Heiss, Chair

DREAMS OF FREEDOM

Dreams of Freedom is coming to the IACES on Thursday, March 15, 2018. This is the recommendation that I wrote for Richie O'Brien and Dreams of Freedom to be granted a Visa to play in the USA. Don't miss him on his first trip to Ohio!

Re: Qualifications of Richard O'Brien

As Entertainment Chairperson for the Irish American Club, East Side I have listened to many Irish bands over the past years. In fact, I have visited Ireland 27 times since my first trip in 1994.

Barely a night has gone by that I have not been entertained by an Irish band in a pub, theatre, festival, or church. I have also planned and escorted 3 bus tours around Ireland. Each time we included Richie O'Brien and Dreams of Freedom as a highlight on the tour.

There are many styles of Irish music to be found in Ireland. (Traditional, Ballads, Celtic Rock, Irish Country, etc.) Richard O'Brien and Dreams of Freedom represent a type of music that is very difficult to find anymore in Ireland. Richie preserves the history of Ireland by singing Irish Rebel Songs. Although he does sing ballads, the rebel song is his specialty. My husband and I always begin our trip in Co. Kerry just to hear Richie or Dreams of Freedom. We have heard him sing in the Dingle Pub since 2001. We have also heard him play at the Killarney Towers Hotel. It is rare to hear Irish Rebel music performed in Ireland very often. Many entertainers will just say that they don't sing those songs anymore. It is wonderful to see a young person want to preserve his country's history by singing and explaining the background of each song. Richie's performances are enjoyed by all ages. Each evening they leave with a little more understanding of Ireland's history.

It would be an asset to the Irish American communities in the USA if Richard O'Brien would be granted a Visa.

Respectfully,

Linda L. Burke

BOOKBUZZ

Bonnie Easton

Hello, readers, here are a few suggestions for you this month.

The First Day: A Novel by Phil Harrison explores the aftermath of an affair. In Belfast, a married pastor and father of three has a passionate relationship with a young student. She has a son and he confesses his son to his wife and his congregation. His oldest son, Philip, holds a grudge against his father for the betrayal and his young half-brother that leads to violence.

Manhattan Beach: A Novel by Pulitzer Prize winner Jennifer Egan is a hot title. Anna Kerrigan's father is a bag-man for a ruthless Irish gangster, Dexter Styles. She accompanies Eddie on his rounds and meets his boss. When she is 19, her father disappears, leaving Anna to support her mother and disabled sister. World War II provides jobs and she works as a diver repairing battleships, a man's job. At the Navy Yard, she runs into Styles once again and hopes for answers to discover what happened to her father.

In Carnegie's Maid: A Novel by Marie Benedict, young Clara Kelly travels in steerage to America with the hopes of finding a job and sending money home to help her family's struggling farm in County Galway. When she arrives, a case of mistaken identity lands her a position as a lady's maid to the mother of Industrialist Andrew Carnegie. Against the backdrop of the last days of the Civil War, Clara's intelligence and sharp wit win Andrew's affection. Carnegie becomes one of the leading philanthropists by giving away $350 million in his lifetime.

PADRAIC PEARSE BOOK DISCUSSION

There is no Padraic Pearse Book Discussion meeting in March so that we can enjoy all the activities our club has to offer. See you in April.

April 28: Saints for All Occasions: A Novel by J. Courtney Sullivan

May 18: To Be Determined

June 15: The Ninth Hour: A Novel by Alice McDermott

SAVE THE DATES!

Thursday, April 19 – “Steak Shoot” – It's hard to believe but season 10 will start on this date. This fun game has given many people much enjoyment and loads of delicious steaks. We hope you'll join us again as the Padraic Pearse Center kicks off “Steak Shoot” season!

Sunday, April 29 – Ladies Only Luncheon and Raffle – That's right, ladies, we're in the midst of planning the Padraic Pearse Center's 10th Annual Ladies Only event! Details and ticket information will be in the next Schanachie, but let your relatives, friends and co-workers know the date right now so they can mark their calendars. Our theme this year is “The Star-Spangled 40s”, and we've got some fun ideas planned for this day. You know that tickets sell out quickly, so plan ahead and don't be left out!

HE SAID...SHE SAID...

By Barbara Comiskey and the Membership

We begin this month with a most sincere apology to Margaret Quinlivan and her family. Margaret is alive and well and living in Oklahoma. We reported her passing in error.

We're sending a shout out to Casey Hatcher's two sons, Joshua and Colin, who pitched in to help at the Hibernian Reverse Raffle. Awesome job, guys. We are also sending get well wishes out to Debbie Hanson who has been under the weather. Get well, soon. Deb.

March is a very big birthday month for Club members' birthdays. Let's begin by sending birthday wishes out to the Skedel family. Jessica and Matt will both celebrate their birthdays on March 4, followed by Lily Skedel who will be blowing out nine candles on March 12. Birthday wishes are being sent to Sr. Joanne Gross on March 10. Both Alana Gurry and Annie Bowen share their birthdays on March 15.

Linda Baron will be celebrating her birthday and St. Patrick's Day on March 17. Cathy Rice will blow out the candles on March 18. Happy birthday to Beth McNally on March 21 and Annette O'Brien on March 24. It's the big 60 for Annette!! Holy cow! Elizabeth Marino is an adult and turns 18 this month. We couldn't pass up this opportunity to wish Mary Cosgriff a belated happy birthday. Mary turned 90 on January 28 and celebrated with family and friends. God bless you, Mary. Belated birthday wishes also go out to Rosemary Nugent who celebrated her day on February 20.

Sean Cosgriff is engaged to Crystal Moga and planning a December wedding. Wishing you all the best, Sean and Crystal.

We are sad to report the passing of Claire Trueman, Marie Reick, Howard Taylor, Margaret Hertick, Bill Mason and Mary Terese Hurley. Please remember each of them and their families in your prayers.

We have been asked to remember the 172 students and 3 adults that were lost in the tragic Collinwood School fire on March 4, 1908.

To have your important events included in this column, please jot them down on the flyers found on the tables at the membership meetings or email me at barbcomiskey@gmail.com.

Bylaws, Rules of Order, Standing Rules and Customs

By Tom Curran, IACES Parliamentarian

Over the past few months, several informal conversations have taken place regarding old business conducted by the Irish American Club East Side (the Club). I referenced my Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised (RONR), the authoritative directive to parliamentary procedures that the Club recognizes and uses to keep order and management. I brought my findings before the Executive Board and was directed by President McCluskey to briefly summarize the details.

Meetings are held to make informative decisions. A motion is a formal proposal by a member, in a meeting, that the group take certain action. It's what happens to a motion, once it is passed, that questions have arisen.

A motion, when properly presented and acted upon, can be used for general purposes such as hiring a band, setting a date for an event or spending of funds for capital improvements. These "general housekeeping motions" once executed, become void after action.

A Main Motion can also be used to change or amend the Club's Bylaws, which are governing procedures, or deviate from RONR by proposing amendment changes. A motion whose intention is to change law or procedure needs to designate what the intention is. Failure of the motion to state this results in the motion becoming improper and unenforceable. For example - if a motion is made to allow the Club to take a certain action AND FAILS TO DESIGNATE THE INTENTION TO AMEND THE BYLAWS OR STANDING RULES, the motion becomes improper and is dead on the floor.

A Custom or Policy should not be confused with Bylaws or Rules of Order. The Club may be in the habit of doing something over and over again which becomes an "unwritten" law. It become the norm, however cannot be enforced. This is called latent ambiguity, the common practice of an action that isn't law.

Standing Rules are administrative details and are not important enough to be in the Bylaws and do not relate to the conduct of a meeting. A Standing Rule should not be confused with Policy. Standing Rules are designated such when the motion is made where Policy is a custom or habit.

In summary, motions are made as directives to take action. A motion can be made to change Bylaws, Standing Rules or for general housekeeping purposes. Failure of a motion to be properly designated in its formation makes the motion improper and becomes a dead issue. Customs and Policies are habits and practices that although have been followed, are unenforceable (latent ambiguity).

Membership Has Its Privileges By Linda Walsh

☘ YOUR vote counts! Vote on action at the monthly membership meetings. You must sign the attendance sheet to earn credit. Please don't sign in for anyone but yourself.
