BOOK BUZZ

Bonnie Easton

The Murder, She Wrote television series starring the late, great Angela Lansbury ran for 12 seasons from 1984-1996. You can still watch episodes late at night on the Hallmark Mystery channel. Did you know that Angela Lansbury's mother, Moyna McGill, was born in Belfast? Angela herself had Irish, British, and American citizenship and kept a home in County Cork where she raised her two children. In addition to the television series, there has been a Murder, She Wrote paperback mystery series since at least 1994 that lists the author as Jessica Fletcher with a co-author. The latest is Murder, She Wrote: Death on the Emerald Isle co-authored by Terrie Farley Moran. Jessica travels to a book festival in Belfast to replace a speaker who could not attend. A neighbor in Cabot Cove, Maeve O'Bannon, asks her to deliver some paintings to her family nearby. Being the murder magnet that she is, Angela becomes involved with the investigation into the murder of Maeve's cousin, Michael, and uncovers O'Bannon family secrets.

Joseph O'Connor (Star of the Sea) offers his new book, My Father's House. It's the true story of Monsignor Hugh O'Flaherty during the Nazi invasion of Rome in 1943 when diplomats, refugees, and escaped Allied prisoners of war fled to Vatican City for refuge. The Monsignor worked tirelessly to smuggle them out of Italy to safety. The author promises that this volume is the first of a trilogy.

Shadowplay is another book by O'Connor that was published in 2023. This is the story of Irish-born Dracula author Bram Stoker when he was the manager of the Lyceum Theater in London. Stoker is inspired to write the classic story of Dracula because of his experience of living in London when there was a serial killer on the loose. He struck a friendship with actor Henry Irving and was involved with leading lady, Ellen Terry.

Tricia O'Malley is a bestselling romance writer with over three million books sold that have been translated into several languages. She has written several paperback series. The Mystic Cove series takes place in Grace's Cove, and each tells the story of a different couple with a paranormal influence while falling in love. The twelfth and latest installment is Wild Irish Moon. Iris Moon has been betrayed by her boyfriend and doesn't feel that she can trust a man again. Enter Kane Wallace, a bestselling author, who gives her a lift from the airport to Grace's Cove. He also is seeking solace after a breakup. Friendship may lead to love if they both allow themselves to open their hearts again.

Comhghairdeas Brandon Asazawa

On Friday, March 3 and Sunday, March 5, 2023, club member Brandon Asazawa will dance in the role of principal dancer in the Riverdance performances at the State Theater in Cleveland. Brandon and his family, Sandi and Bill Asazawa, have been club members for over 20 years, Brandon was a wee lad of five when he danced his first show here at the Irish American Club East Side. A dancer for the Leneghan Academy, taught by Catherine Leneghan TCRG, Brandon began competitive dancing at five and continues to teach at the school when he is home between tours. Becoming lead dancer has always been a dream of his and he is extremely excited to fly home from the Germany tour for the weekend to perform in his hometown. ## ST. PATRICK'S DAY PARADE GRAND MARSHAL CONGRATULATIONS TO ONE OF OUR VERY OWN.

Charter Member, Michael F. Coyne (Mickey), has been selected as Grand Marshal of the 2023 Cleveland St. Patrick's Day Parade!

OUR 2023 MEMBER OF THE YEAR

John Joseph Ambrose Murphy was born on a warm day in September 1952. He is the third of six children born to John and Mary Jane. His siblings include Michael, Mary, Patrick, Helen, and Bridget. The family lived on East 172nd Street and Jack was baptized at St. Joseph Church in Collinwood.

In 1955, the family moved to East 211th Street in Euclid. Jack was a Holy Cross Falcon followed by a Viking at St. Joseph High School, graduating in 1970. After graduation, Jack entered the work force following his dad and older brother into the factory, Pressure Castings. Jack worked there for a few years until the opportunity arose for him to test and become a deckhand on an iron ore boat that traveled the Great Lakes.

Jack was “off” during the winter months where he was able to hone his bartending skills at area watering holes, including the Irish American Club. After painstakingly saving his money, Jack was able to purchase Tradewinds Lounge in 1983.

Jack has been an active member in the Irish American Club East Side since its inception and is charter member #131. He advertises monthly in The Schanachie as a corporate sponsor and supports all events the Club hosts. He has also sponsored several Thirsty Thursdays and is famous for riding his bike every Thursday from East 200th Street to the Club for those Thirsty Thursdays. One of his favorite things to do here at the Club is serve up the carrots at the annual corned beef and cabbage dinner.

In case you did not know Jack loves gambling. He is known for his catch phrase of “just plain #” at many of our reverse raffles he has called for the Club.

Jack has made a home and shared his life with Pamela Anderson for the past 25 years. He is the favorite uncle to 10 nieces and nephews, even though there are countless other people who affectionately call him “Uncle Jack”.

Jack has always been willing to donate to any type of raffle and has been known to win “a few”. His contagious laugh and generous heart exemplify the true Irish spirit. The Irish American Club East Side is proud to recognize Jack Murphy as its 2023 Member of the Year.
