“Ladies Only” Luncheon And Raffle Set In The French Quarter – Don’t Miss It!

Pat Dowd

Coming up with a different theme each year is a lot of fun for the Padraic Pearse Center committee. As soon as the New Year begins, the two questions we are asked are, “When is the Ladies Only event?” and “What’s the theme?”

This year the date is Sunday afternoon, April 28 and our theme is “An Afternoon in the French Quarter – A Masquerade”. This great afternoon is filled with many opportunities for the ladies to relax and unwind. Tickets are $40 each and include an open bar with “specialty drinks of the day”, a hot buffet luncheon, side boards, an enticing Chinese auction, a chance to win $1500 on our main board, specialty drawings, photo ops, and lots of fun.

If you’ve never been to New Orleans, we’ll put you in the mood for its French Quarter atmosphere and Bourbon Street jazz. Colors of the day are green, gold/yellow, and purple. Of course, beads are always in style. And don’t forget that colorful mask!

Doors open at 1 pm, luncheon is at 2 pm, and the drawings start at 3 pm.

Ladies, if you’ve never attended this event, the tickets go fast and the event is always a sellout. Don’t wait to order your tickets or they will be gone. All Padraic Pearse committee members have tickets and most are already sold. Please call me at 440-429-5151 if you are in need of tickets and I will let you know what is available.

Thanks so much for your enthusiastic support of this event!

Bonnie Easton

Cozy mysteries are favorites of readers everywhere. Their authors use the power of the story and its characters along with humor to move the plot along. The setting for this genre is usually small towns with quirky residents and amateur sleuths who try to solve a murder. They are sort of like a Hallmark movie. The following authors place their series in small villages in Ireland.

The County Cork Mystery Series by Sheila Connolly stars Maura Donovan. She travels to Ireland to visit the town where her grandmother was born and decides to stay. She finds a job working in the local pub. (Buried in a Bog, Scandal in Skibbereen, An Early Wake, A Turn for the Bad, Cruel Winter, Many a Twist, The Lost Traveller)

Carlene O’Connor writes the Murder in an Irish Village Mystery Series about Siobhan O’Sullivan who opens Naomi’s Bistro with her five siblings in Kilbane, County Cork after their parents are killed in a car crash. Townsfolk stop in for a cup of tea and local gossip. Bodies keep showing up in strange places. (Murder in an Irish Village, Murder in an Irish Wedding, Murder in an Irish Churchyard, Murder in an Irish Pub)

Author Zara Keane grew up in Dublin and spent her childhood summers in the small town of Ballybeg. Her Movie Club Mysteries Series are more contemporary in style than the others. Her crime solver is Maggie Doyle, a one-time San Francisco cop who moves to Ireland to escape her cheating ex-husband and start a new life. She begins working as a private investigator. (Dial P for Poison, The Postman Always Dies Twice, How to Murder a Millionaire, The 39 Cupcakes, Rebel without a Claus)

David Ahern is a research psychologist who abandoned his training to write the Madam Tulip Mysteries. His main character is actress Derry O’Donnell who moonlights as a fortune teller to celebrities, but her Madam Tulip alter ego often finds herself involved in intrigue and murder. (Madam Tulip, Madam Tulip and the Knave of Hearts, Madam Tulip and the Bones of Chance)

PADRAIC PEARSE BOOK DISCUSSION

Join us at 7:15 pm, Friday, April 26 as we discuss What She Knew by Gilly Macmillan. Single mother Rachel Jenner is living a mother’s worst nightmare when her eight-year-old son Ben goes missing. On a Sunday afternoon, she takes him to the park with his dog and he asks if he can run ahead. Of course. What’s the harm? But he vanishes for days with no sign of him. The police focus their investigation on her ex-husband and his sister, but the press condemns her as an unfit mother in the court of public opinion. Where could Ben be?

Upcoming discussions:

May 17: Eleanor Oliphant Is Completely Fine by Gail Honeyman

June 21: The Ruin by Dervla MacTiernan

IT'S "STEAK SHOOT" TIME AGAIN!

Pat Dowd

Our four-month hiatus flew by, and we know you are ready to fill your freezer with more of those delicious steaks as we begin season 11 at 7:30 pm, Thursday night, April 25.

That's right, from April through November, we'll be playing this fun game and you'll be winning steaks and cash at our monthly "Steak Shoot" games. Played just like "Bingo", you only have to cover three spots on your card and you'll be a winner!

Whether you come alone or with family or friends, you'll have a fun time. There are 24 games in the regular sets and several bonus games. At intermission, you'll have an opportunity to enjoy refreshments, purchase tickets for the monthly cash drawing and have those same tickets entered into our "Holiday Cash" drawing in November. Admission is $10 for 1 set of 3 cards, or $20 for 3 sets of cards.

Mark your calendar and plan to join us in the Phil Walsh Cabaret Room on Thursday, April 25 and May 16. Soon we'll be able to fire up those grills again!
